Pope Plans Peace Bid, Report Says

Scheduled To Send Mission To North Viet, Vatican Hints

VATICAN CITY (AP)—In the wake of President Johnson's meeting with Pope Paul VI, reports spread in Vatican circles today that the pontiff will send a peace mission soon to North Vietnam.

It was impossible to confirm whether the reports were leaks inspired by leading Vatican officials preparing the ground for such a mission, or simply logical speculation.

The reports first appeared in the Turin daily La Stampa, considered usually well informed on Vatican affairs. Afternoon Rome dailies later carried much the same story.

There was no joint communique issued after the Pope and Johnson met the night of Dec. 23. The President stopped off in Rome on his way home from Australia to discuss Vietnam with the Pope.

Johnson said afterward he would agree to stop the U.S. bombings if the principle of mutual restraint was also accepted by North Vietnam.

He told the Pope American war prisoners held in North Vietnam were being denied their rights. He also added he would be keeping in touch with the pontiff in the days ahead on the Vietnamese issue.

The La Stampa story said: "After the meeting between Johnson and Paul it is expected that soon a Vatican delegation will be sent to North Vietnam."

It said the initial purpose would be to obtain more humane treatment for American war prisoners, but that this would provide the chance for political contacts with the hope of preparing the way for preliminary talks aimed at starting peace negotiations.

Outlook On Viet War

Americans See Possibility Of Bigger, Bloodier Battles

What changes have taken place in the Vietnam war this year, and what is the outlook? Here is an appraisal from an Associated Press reporter who has been in Vietnam nearly six years and seen the conflict grow from one involving a few thousand American advisers.

By PETER ARNETT
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The Vietnam war spiraled to new heights in 1967. A year of action from one end of the country to the other has left knowledgeable Americans concerned at the possibility of bigger and bloodier battles ahead.

Both sides claimed numerous victories this year. In the terms of reference both used, both were right.

American commanders tend to analyze Vietnam in terms of World War II. The Communists see the war in terms of the fight to oust the colonial French in the 1950s.

As this year ends, military tacticians cannot determine that even one decisive battle has been fought. At the demilitarized zone, both sides are bogged down in the mud and slush of the monsoon season. Hill 875 and the other headlined heights of Dak To are being taken over again by the jungle and avoided by both sides since the bloody battles of November.

Showdown In 1968

Many persons see 1967 as a curtain-raiser to a military showdown in 1968. This year's developments tend to support this thinking.

The Communists put to a severe test the allied tactics of attrition espoused by Gen. William C. Westmoreland. At the DMZ U.S. Marine officers estimated that casualties taken by both sides were on a one-to-one basis all year long.

Optimism about an early end to the war is based partly on the huge total of enemy dead—more than 80,000 this year by allied reckoning. But the Communists continued to commit men in seemingly pointless battles right up to the year's end.

Killings of more than 100 enemy troops at a time were confirmed, particularly along the Cambodian border north of Saigon. An American brigade commander said: "Don't let us forget that the Viet Minh lost an estimated half a million dead in the struggle against the French. They are much better organized now, and they have lost nowhere near that number in this war."

Another senior officer said: "Let's face it. Either because they don't know or don't care, the mothers of North Vietnam seem much less concerned about their sons than the mothers of America."

Communist Tactics

The near-suicidal commitment of men to battle appears to be just one of half a dozen tactics used in the Communists' greatest offensive of the war.

203 Killed; 2 American Craft Lost

15 South Soldiers Slain In First Big Battle Since Truce

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese soldiers and rocket-spewing American helicopters wiped out half of a Communist battalion Tuesday.

The Red force of less than 500 men left 203 bodies on the coastal battlefield just below the demilitarized zone and dragged off more dead and wounded when it slipped away during the night.

Fifteen South Vietnamese were killed, 59 were wounded, and the gunners of the crack 416th Viet Cong Battalion shot down two American helicopters and riddled several more.

Three U.S. helicopter crewmen and an American infantry adviser were wounded, along with one Australian adviser.

It was the first major battle after the 24-hour Christmas truce proclaimed by the South Vietnamese. The fighting began more than 12 hours before the end of the three-day cease-fire ordered by the Viet Cong.

The battle flared early Tuesday when a South Vietnamese battalion swept out on a search-and-destroy operation northeast of Quang Tri city. The South Vietnamese caught the Red force in the coastal flats and pinned it to the coast as a second government battalion was rushed up with armored vehicles to block the enemy's escape routes.

Artillery and jet planes pounded the Viet Cong, and then the helicopters whirled in with rockets and machine guns blazing. They were credited with a large part of the enemy casualties.

Heavy fire rained on the Viet Cong throughout the day and into the night, with flareships lighting the battlefield. By 1 a.m. today the enemy had evidently slipped out on the flanks, leaving 42 rifles and submachine guns and 10 heavier weapons in addition to the dead they could not carry away. Six prisoners were also taken, including one junior officer.

In the air war, U.S. pilots flew 150 missions over North Vietnam Tuesday, the largest number in five weeks.

The cloud ceiling ranged from 2,000 to 3,000 feet over most of the country and only one raid struck deep into the interior, at a boatyard some 20 miles up the Red River from Hanoi.

The other strikes raked coastal roads, rails and canals from below Hanoi to the demilitarized zone. Navy pilots reported 20 sampans blasted out of the water and 20 trucks destroyed or damaged.

Reds Using Country As Sanctuary

LBJ Pushes For Solution To Cambodian Problem

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite a sharp rebuff from Cambodia, President Johnson still hopes to find a diplomatic solution to the problem of Communist forces using Cambodian territory as a sanctuary from which to attack South Vietnam.

U.S. officials said Johnson intends to exhaust all the resources of diplomacy before considering other means of dealing with the problem.

Officials report, however, that pressures are growing inside the Johnson administration for military action if diplomacy fails.

The United States has charged several times previously that Communist forces—Viet Cong and North Vietnamese—were taking refuge in Cambodia when hard-pressed in South Vietnam and sometimes attacking U.S. and South Vietnamese troops by operations from across the Vietnamese-Cambodian border.

On Dec. 4, the State Department reported Tuesday, the United States sent a note to the Cambodian government "as part of a sincere effort to provide the Cambodian government with information which would enable it to move toward a solution of a problem we believe should be of concern to the Cambodian government as well as the United States government."

The note proposed strengthening of an international control commission for Cambodia to enable it to prevent use of Cambodian territory by the Communists as far as possible.

It also stated, according to a State Department spokesman, that the United States respects "the neutrality, sovereignty, independence and territorial integrity of Cambodia" and "has no hostile intentions toward Cambodia or Cambodian territory."

The proposal was rejected in a Cambodian note received here late last week and made public by the government in Phnom Penh. Notes were exchanged through Australia since the United States and Cambodia do not have diplomatic relations.

"The royal Cambodian government considers as an attempt against Cambodian sovereignty," the note said, "the groundless accusations and the suggestions to cooperation made to solve the alleged problem of violation of Cambodian neutrality by the forces of the DRV (North Vietnam) and NFLSV (the National Liberation Front, political arm of the Viet Cong)."

The Cambodian note charged that the United States and its allies in South Vietnam are already conducting some limited military operations against Cambodia, which it denounced as "flagrant violations of international law."

The note specified "daily incursions into Khmer (Cambodian) air space, attacks and terrorist bombings on the Cambodian civilian population in the frontier zones, and infiltrations by commandos for the purposes of sabotage and assassination."

Officials say the only policy now existing that would permit U.S. operations involving Cambodian territory is that giving military commanders freedom —when U.S. forces are fired on from across the border—to return fire.

Gas Rate Boost Gets Final Okay

East Liverpool consumers will begin paying higher gas rates in late January under an ordinance given final approval by City Council Tuesday night.

Council approved, 4-3, the controversial legislation which sets up a new four - year agreement with the Ohio Valley Gas Co. and grants the utility an increase averaging out to 12.3 per cent over the life of the ordinance.

SINCE THE ordinance does not contain an emergency clause, there will be a 30-day wait before it takes effect. The legislation also stipulates that the rates will not be in force until written acceptance has been filed by the gas company. That means the legislation cannot take effect prior to Jan. 26, 30 days after its enactment.

Councilmen James Lowe, Harold Maylone, Robert W. Sample and Donna Richards Wilson voted for final passage of the legislation. All are Republicans. Councilmen Norman Bucher, Frank Duffy and Floyd Murray, Democrats, voted "no."

"You sure sold the people down the river," Duffy declared after the legislation was approved. He had opposed the legislation throughout its four presentations in the legislative mill, arguing that the question of a rate boost should be taken before the Public Utilities Commission in Columbus.

Before the final reading last night, Bucher moved to refer the question back to the Council committee for new negotiations with the gas company, concentrating on a two - year agreement. He was seconded by Duffy. But Solicitor J. Michael Kapp ruled the motion was out of order because another already was on the floor for third reading. As a result, no vote was taken on the motion to send the negotiations back to the committee.

THE ORDINANCE was given first reading with a split vote Dec. 11. Presented for second reading Dec. 18, it was turned down, 3-2. But the solicitor ruled it still was in an active status and the ordinance remained

Thief Obtains Bonds, Coins From Home

An intruder obtained more than $210 in coins and $3,000 in non-negotiable U. S. Savings Bonds in ransacking the bedrooms of an East End home in the family's absence Tuesday afternoon or night, police reported.

The coins and bonds, plus a series of insurance policies were stolen from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cahill of 1090 Ohio Ave. between 4 and 9:13 p. m., officers said.

The thief fled with a bottle full of dimes — about $150 in all — a small bank containing $60 in 25-cent pieces, a jewelry box containing an undetermined quantity of half-dollars and a small strongbox that contained life, house and car insurance policies and the U. S. Bonds in denominations of $25 and $50, officers said.

Mrs. Cahill reported she left the home at 4 p. m. and returned at 9:13. The intruder first broke a pane of glass in a window on the south side of the home and then reached

New Year To Bring Good, Bad News For Taxpayer

WASHINGTON (AP) — New Year's Day will bring both good and bad news for the American taxpayer. One tax will be erased from the government's books on Jan. 1 while another will be increased for many persons.

Higher Social Security taxes to be paid during 1968 will more than offset the repeal of the federal stamp tax on real estate sales which was voted in 1965 but doesn't take effect until next week.

That tax amounts to 55 cents for each $500, or fraction, of a real estate sale and means between $60 million and $70 million each year to the Treasury Department. It is one of the fees collected from the home-buyer when he signs his settlement papers.

Although the Social Security tax rate won't increase for 1968, the amount of salary on which it is levied will—from $6,600 to $7,800. This will mean an additional tax of $52.80 for a person earning $7,800 or more during the year.

President Johnson has not yet signed the Social Security bill but is expected to do so shortly.

Increased Social Security taxes and repeal of the federal stamp tax on real estate are the only two changes in the tax law which take effect Jan. 1.

But when Congress returns next month, the House Ways and Means Committee is again scheduled to take up President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent surcharge on individual and corporate income taxes and Treasury officials hope for speedy passage.

In addition to higher income taxes, that package also would postpone drops scheduled for April 1 in the 7 per cent manufacturers' excise tax on automo-

If you were muttering about the cold on the way to work this morning, it was with good reason.

The official overnight low at Millport was 3 degrees, according to Edwin Copeland, U. S. weather observer, the coldest of the winter to date.

And, Copeland pointed out, the winter is less than a week old—"We haven't cut our eye teeth on this one, yet." The record area low for December is 18 degrees below in 1958, he added.

The forecast calls for continued cold tonight and Thursday, with the possibility of snow flurries. The low is expected to range from zero to 15 above.

The five-day outlook has temperatures averaging well below normal through Monday, with highs in the mid 20s and lows mostly in the teens.

Day-to-day changes will be minor.

Chester Councilmen Ask Check On Teen Drinking

Alarmed by reports of teenage drinking along the "Strip" near Chester, councilmen there Tuesday night approved a motion to write the Hancock County sheriff and the prosecutor's office asking for investigations and prosecutions where necessary.

Councilman Thomas Bowen told members of a complaint by an area resident who said his 15-year-old daughter came home drunk one night after frequenting one of the establishments.

After approval of a motion by Roy Cashdollar, Clerk Donald Hood was instructed to write the letter asking more police protection and additional "checking" into the complaints of juveniles being served alcoholic beverages.

Pointing out there is no legal action the city can take since the bars are outside the city limits, members agreed, however, they should protest the serving of juvniles.

The charged law enforcement procedures have grown lax and traffic checks which were carried out earlier this year have ceased. They suggested the city again might begin checking drivers to determine if any are drunk and if any of them are teen-agers, especially under-age youngsters.

At the same time, Council pointed out residents who have valid complaints should take it upon themselves to swear out warrants against the offending taverns before a justice of the peace in an effort to bring prosecution.

The company said Tuesday that phone users in New Jersey have talked themselves into first place in the world by placing 806 calls per year per person.

The annual average in the United States is 648 calls per person, an increase of 28 calls per person over the amount placed in 1966.

Trailing New Jersey in terms of telephone talkativeness, the company said, is Canada where the national average is 664 calls per person.

Chester Councilmen Ask Check On Teen Drinking

Alarmed by reports of teenage drinking along the "Strip" near Chester, councilmen there Tuesday night approved a motion to write the Hancock County sheriff and the prosecutor's office asking for investigations and prosecutions where necessary.

Councilman Thomas Bowen told members of a complaint by an area resident who said his 15-year-old daughter came home drunk one night after frequenting one of the establishments.

After approval of a motion by Roy Cashdollar, Clerk Donald Hood was instructed to write the letter asking more police protection and additional "checking" into the complaints of juveniles being served alcoholic beverages.

Pointing out there is no legal action the city can take since the bars are outside the city limits, members agreed, however, they should protest the serving of juvniles.

The charged law enforcement procedures have grown lax and traffic checks which were carried out earlier this year have ceased. They suggested the city again might begin checking drivers to determine if any are drunk and if any of them are teen-agers, especially under-age youngsters.

At the same time, Council pointed out residents who have valid complaints should take it upon themselves to swear out warrants against the offending taverns before a justice of the peace in an effort to bring prosecution.

Thief Obtains Bonds, Coins From Home

An intruder obtained more than $210 in coins and $3,000 in non-negotiable U. S. Savings Bonds in ransacking the bedrooms of an East End home in the family's absence Tuesday afternoon or night, police reported.

The coins and bonds, plus a series of insurance policies were stolen from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cahill of 1090 Ohio Ave. between 4 and 9:13 p. m., officers said.

The thief fled with a bottle full of dimes — about $150 in all — a small bank containing $60 in 25-cent pieces, a jewelry box containing an undetermined quantity of half-dollars and a small strongbox that contained life, house and car insurance policies and the U. S. Bonds in denominations of $25 and $50, officers said.

Mrs. Cahill reported she left the home at 4 p. m. and returned at 9:13. The intruder first broke a pane of glass in a window on the south side of the home and then reached

Pen Warden Talks Two Inmates Into Giving Up

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — As two prisoners held a guard hostage with a knife to his throat, Warden Murray Henderson stepped alone into a Tennessee State Prison cellblock Tuesday night and talked the men into surrendering.

"You don't get things done that way," Henderson told the men.

The prisoners, Donald Lee Hancock, 21, and William T. Arthur, 29, turned over their weapons without further resistance and were placed in a maximum security unit.

The warden's action ended a brief flareup of violence which began at a Christmas music show and ended with three guards hospitalized with stab wounds.

Both Hancock and Arthur denied stabbing the guards, and officers canvassed the prison early today for weapons on other inmates.

State Corrections Commissioner Harry Avery said the injured guards were Aubrey Hollingsworth and William A. Fields, both of Nashville, and Herschel L. Currie of Columbia, Tenn.

Hollingsworth and Currie, both with stab wounds in the chest and abdomen, were listed in serious condition at a hospital, and Fields, stabbed in the back, was described as fair.

Alerted at his home after the outbreak, Henderson rushed to the prison and found Hancock and Arthur with a knife at the throat of another guard, Byron Bean.

"I told them to cut that stuff out, that such didn't go on inside a prison," said the warden.

Hancock is serving a 55-year term in the slaying of a state trooper at Shelbyville, Tenn., and Arthur, convicted in Chattanooga of armed robbery and murder, has a 100-109-year term.

Freak Mishap Fatal

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Fifteen year old Richard Riggio of Maumee died Tuesday from injuries received in a freak accident Christmas Day. The jack slipped on his father's car while Richard was working on it, and the vehicle fell on him.

Kidneys Of Dying Boy Donated For Transplants

CLEVELAND (AP) — Dr. William Anderson told Mr. and Mrs. Willard Stives their son had only hours to live and asked if they would allow his kidneys to be donated for transplants?

The parents, of West Springfield, Pa., said yes.

Richard Stives died on Christmas, his 12th birthday. He had been hit by a truck while sledding Dec. 22. The parents had lost another child in a similar accident a few months before.

Dr. Anderson, of Brown Memorial Hospital in Conneaut, about 60 miles east of Cleveland, telephoned the Cleveland Clinic. He krew the clinic specialized in kidney transplants.

Mrs. Richard Kerr and Richard Leeper, both 39 and both from Iowa, had been waiting several months for transplants.

A team of surgeons from the clinic went to Conneaut and arrived shortly before the boy died. They took the kidneys, immersed in a container of mushy ice, and headed for Cleveland. Ohio highway patrolmen escorted them.

Near Painesville, the clinic car blew a tire. The doctors jumped into the trailing patrol car and kept going. They arrived at the clinic 1½ hours after the boy died.

Less than two hours later Mrs. Kerr, of Chariton, Iowa, and Leeper, of Keokuk, were in the intensive care unit of the clinic. Both had a kidney from the Pennsylvania youth.

LBJ Moves His Office To Texas Ranch

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson moved his office to his beloved Texas hill country ranch and settled down today for a year-end stay that aides expected to be "a fairly busy time."

The President announced he has invited Israel's Prime Minister Levi Esnkol for a private and informal ranch visit Jan. 7 and 8.

And his press secretary, George Christian, said the President could be expected to stay in Texas at least through that time.

Bill signing and budget business was prime on the President's agenda, with budget director Charles Schultze, fiscal experts and some Cabinet members coming to the ranch to confer, starting in the next day or so.

Johnson also will be drafting his State of the Union message, presented annually to the reconvening Congress. Congress is due back Jan. 15.

It was to be a combination of work and relaxation for the nation's chief executive, who flew to Texas Tuesday afternoon after spending his first Christmas with his family in the White House.

The President's wife, Lady Bird, daughter, Luci, and her husband, Patrick J. Nugent, and the presidential grandson, baby Lyn, are at the ranch, too, along with three presidential dogs—two beagles and the President's favorite mongrel, Yuki.

the central highlands, dropping some 50,000 pounds of bombs in an area close to the Cambodian border from which enemy gunners had been harassing American planes and firing mortar shells at American camps. Observers said the area was dotted by secondary explosions.

Less than five miles from the Cambodian border northwest of Saigon a bivouac of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division was heavily mortared and 15 GIs were wounded. The Communists also lobbed tear gas shells into one part of the defense ring but failed to follow up with a ground attack.

Allied troop strength in South Vietnam rose with the arrival of 500 men of the Royal Australian Regiment's 3rd Battalion. There are now 7,500 Australians in the country, and the number will reach 8,000 when the rest of the new battalion arrives shortly.

The 4rd Battalion won a U.S. Presidential Unit Citation in 1951 in Korea. It was the first Aussie unit in action in Korea and stayed there until the end of the war.

460 To 540 Traffic Deaths Are Predicted

CHICAGO (AP) — Between 460 and 540 persons will lose their lives on the nation's highways over the three-day New Year holiday observance, says the National Safety Council.

The death count will run from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Monday.

First U.S. Case Of Its Kind

Young Woman 'Fine' After Kidney Transplant

NEW YORK (AP) — A young woman is reported "doing splendidly" after a kidney transplant operation which doctors say was the first known U.S. case preceded by extensive tissue compatibility testing.

The tests were made on both the recipient, Sylvia Szlak, 20, German-born daughter of concentration camp survivors, and the donor prior to the surgery at Bellevue Hospital five days ago.

In other transplant cases, two Iowa patients were reported in good condition at the Cleveland Clinic Tuesday after each received a kidney taken from a Pennsylvania boy who died on Christmas.

The Bellevue doctors said Miss Szlak had only a 1 in 20 chance of locating a compatible donor because of her own tissue type.

Her own diseased kidneys had been removed last October and she was connected to an artificial kidney machine at Bellevue when the potential donor was found in the emergency ward.

In a four-hour series of tests, doctors found the donor—a 45-year-old woman who had suffered a stroke—had tissue that was "unusually compatible" with that of Miss Szlak.

The transplant was effected in a 90-minute operation after the donor died Friday evening. Since then the transplanted organ has functioned normally the doctors said.

Because of the tissue compatibility factor, they said, less drug and radiation treatment was needed to forestall the body's normal rejection of foreign tissue.

A five-surgeon team headed by Dr. Felix Rapaprt, associate professor of surgery at New York University School of Medicine, performed the operation.

The two Iowa patients are Mrs. Patty Kerr, 39, of Chariton and Richard Leeper, 39, a farmer from Keokuk. They had been "waiting for months" for a transplant, a clinic spokesman said.

The youth, Richard Stivers of West Springfield, Pa., was hit by a truck while sledding and died at Brown Memorial Hospital in Conneaut, Ohio, about 60 miles east of Cleveland.

Dr. Bruce H. Stewart and two associates from the clinic removed the kidneys and then rushed back to Cleveland with an escort from the Ohio Highway Patrol.

Drivers Given Suspensions

LISBON — Eleven of 13 boys and girls cited for juvenile traffic hearings Tuesday at the Courthouse lost the right to drive for varying periods, eight of them for speeding.

Licenses of the following were suspended:

David D. Elliott, 16, of 717 S. Lundy, Salem; Richard A. Demeo, 17, of 408 Fair Ave., Salem, and Gordon R. Bright, 16, of 1307 Brightview Dr., East Liverpool, speeding, 30 days each.

36th Victim In Collapse Of Bridge Found

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va. (AP)—"We have one more car and 10 more bodies down there that we know of," a State Police spokesman said today after the recovery of another body in the Point Pleasant bridge disaster.

The 36th victim of the Dec. 15 Silver Bridge collapse, whose body was found trapped under the bridge wreckage in 40-feet of water, was identified as Mrs. Glenna Mae Taylor, 23, of Point Pleasant.

Divers recovered the body along with a car in which Mrs. Taylor and her husband were believed to have been riding when the bridge collapsed. Her husband is among the 10 persons still missing.

The arduous recovery operation was in its 12th day today and involved lifting sunken portions of the 39-year-old bridge from the Ohio River for removal to a reassembly area.

Col. William D. Falck of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers reported that 2,000 tons of debris have been removed from the river so far and a minimum of six more days of good weather will be necessary to remove the remaining portions of the bridge's superstructure.

Most of the recovered bridge parts have been transferred to the 25-acre site leased at nearby Henderson for reassembly by the State Road Commission.

Harriet Beecher Stowe's anti-slavery book, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," or "Life Among the Lowly," published in 1852, is considered among the chief causes of the Civil War. In addition to its wide circulation in the United States, the book was translated into 23 languages.

LBJ Moves His Office To Texas Ranch

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson moved his office to his beloved Texas hill country ranch and settled down today for a year-end stay that aides expected to be "a fairly busy time."

The President announced he has invited Israel's Prime Minister Levi Eshkol for a private and informal ranch visit Jan. 7 and 8.

And his press secretary, George Christian, said the President could be expected to stay in Texas at least through that time.

Bill signing and budget business was prime on the President's agenda, with budget director Charles Schultze, fiscal experts and some Cabinet members coming to the ranch to confer, starting in the next day or so.

Johnson also will be drafting his State of the Union message, presented annually to the reconvening Congress. Congress is due back Jan. 15.

It was to be a combination of work and relaxation for the nation's chief executive, who flew to Texas Tuesday afternoon after spending his first Christmas with his family in the White House.

The President's wife, Lady Bird, daughter, Luci, and her husband, Patrick J. Nugent, and the presidential grandson, baby Lyn, are at the ranch, too, along with three presidential dogs—two beagles and the President's favorite mongrel, Yuki.

the central highlands, dropping some 50,000 pounds of bombs in an area close to the Cambodian border from which enemy gunners had been harassing American planes and firing mortar shells at American camps. Observers said the area was dotted by secondary explosions.

Less than five miles from the Cambodian border northwest of Saigon a bivouac of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division was heavily mortared and 15 GIs were wounded. The Communists also lobbed tear gas shells into one part of the defense ring but failed to follow up with a ground attack.

Allied troop strength in South Vietnam rose with the arrival of 500 men of the Royal Australian Regiment's 3rd Battalion. There are now 7,500 Australians in the country, and the number will reach 8,000 when the rest of the new battalion arrives shortly.

The 4rd Battalion won a U.S. Presidential Unit Citation in 1951 in Korea. It was the first Aussie unit in action in Korea and stayed there until the end of the war.

First U.S. Case Of Its Kind

Young Woman 'Fine' After Kidney Transplant

NEW YORK (AP) — A young woman is reported "doing splendidly" after a kidney transplant operation which doctors say was the first known U.S. case preceded by extensive tissue compatibility testing.

The tests were made on both the recipient, Sylvia Szlak, 20, German-born daughter of concentration camp survivors, and the donor prior to the surgery at Bellevue Hospital five days ago.

In other transplant cases, two Iowa patients were reported in good condition at the Cleveland Clinic Tuesday after each received a kidney taken from a Pennsylvania boy who died on Christmas.

The Bellevue doctors said Miss Szlak had only a 1 in 20 chance of locating a compatible donor because of her own tissue type.

Her own diseased kidneys had been removed last October and she was connected to an artificial kidney machine at Bellevue when the potential donor was found in the emergency ward.

In a four-hour series of tests, doctors found the donor—a 45-year-old woman who had suffered a stroke—had tissue that was "unusually compatible" with that of Miss Szlak.

The transplant was effected in a 90-minute operation after the donor died Friday evening. Since then the transplanted organ has functioned normally the doctors said.

Because of the tissue compatibility factor, they said, less drug and radiation treatment was needed to forestall the body's normal rejection of foreign tissue.

A five-surgeon team headed by Dr. Felix Rapaprt, associate professor of surgery at New York University School of Medicine, performed the operation.

The two Iowa patients are Mrs. Patty Kerr, 39, of Chariton and Richard Leeper, 39, a farmer from Keokuk. They had been "waiting for months" for a transplant, a clinic spokesman said.

The youth, Richard Stivers of West Springfield, Pa., was hit by a truck while sledding and died at Brown Memorial Hospital in Conneaut, Ohio, about 60 miles east of Cleveland.

Dr. Bruce H. Stewart and two associates from the clinic removed the kidneys and then rushed back to Cleveland with an escort from the Ohio Highway Patrol.

But You Can't Make 'Em Buckle

Federal regulations on safety equipment will apply to automobiles manufactured after Dec. 31.

The new equipment may not be reflected in injury and death statistics, however. Automobiles manufactured after Dec. 31 must provide two cross-chest safety belts — one for each of the outside front seats — and six lap seat belts. Convertibles will not be required to have shoulder harnesses. Cars with bucket seats will need only one lap belt for each seat.

Other safety standards provide for collapsible steering wheel assemblies, dual braking systems, safer tires and rims, and other devices to protect occupants. Even stricter tire standards go into effect next Aug. 1.

The new safety belt regulations are the most controversial. Use of lap seat-belts and other safety equipment in the first nine months of this year is credited for cutting deaths by vehicle travel from 5.5 to 5.2. The date come from Dr. William Haddon, Jr., director of the National Highway Safety Bureau.

Dr. Haddon's bureau announced in August it was reconsidering its shoulder belt regulation on the basis of its own tests, U.S. Public Health Service suggestions, and recommendations from General Motors engineers. Some manufacturers promptly stopped plans to install the belts.

Lowell K. Bridwell's report cited a survey by Volvo, the Swedish auto maker, covering 28,000 accidents. Drivers wearing combination belts had 83 per cent fewer fatalities and 40 per cent fewer serious injuries. Shoulder-belted front-seat passengers had 77 per cent fewer deaths and 68 per cent fewer serious injuries. No death to a belted occupant occurred at speeds below 60 m.p.h.

But a nationwide seat-belt survey released by the Auto Industries Highway Safety Committee in December illustrates the usage problem. Of more than a million cars checked, about 65 per cent had lap-type seat belts. Hardly more than half of the motorists said they always used their belts on long trips. Only a trifle more than a third said they buckled up on local trips.

One other thing. The shoulder belts are going to boost the price of new cars. The industry estimate calls for $20 per car.

It Could Happen

Drivers in Columbiana County and Hancock County were able to get through the Christmas weekend without a highway death; Beaver County counted one fatality on the Turnpike.

The combination of winter weather, long hours of darkness, young people out of school, the general holiday inbibing makes for a high accident potential the last week of December.

Exhortations to "drive safely" have little effect on most motorists — it just can't happen to them, you know. But if you are behind the wheel these next few days, give some thought to the consequences of a high speed collision involving your family, your friends and yourself. The Michigan man killed on the Turnpike Christmas afternoon never thought it would happen to him.

Hubert Is On The Way

It is hard to calculate what the impact of Vice President Hubert Humphrey is going to be during his forthcoming tour of Africa. For the sake of the countries he will visit — Ivory Coast, Liberia, Ghana, the Congo, Ethiopia, Somalia, Kenya and Tunisia — the vice president's countrymen are hoping for the best.

These are among our glorious allies in the United Nations.

The United States has a lively interest in each of them. In Liberia, where Mr. Humphrey will attend inauguration ceremonies for William V. S. Tubman as president of that republic, the interest is as lively as natural rubber ozzing from rubber trees.

In the Congo, it is as lively as half a billion dollars.

Cynics, it is said, refer to Liberia as the 51st American state and Ethiopia as the 52nd. With a slight extension of imaginative logic, cynics could run the count to 60, by including as potential states such potential converts as Sierra Leone, Rwanda, Lesotho, Malawi, Gabon, Gambia and Dahomey.

Dahomey is a study in speculative statehood all by itself. It had a coupe d'etat over the weekend, and no one took any notice, not even its allies in the United Nations, where Dahomey's less than two million inhabitants, most of them primitives who never heard of the United States or the United Nations, are represented as being the equal, nation-wise, of Britian, Japan, France and Italy but somehow inferior to the vast Chinese People's Republic.

Vice President Humphrey will not visit Dahomey on his African tour. He will not visit Nigeria, Angola, Mozambique, Rhodesia, or the South African Republic, either. They are off his itinerary.

His mission is to cement friendships in a part of the world where the United States thinks it is thwarting Communism with signal success.

His fellow Americans can only pray there may be no repetition of a visit to Asia in 1961 by Mr. Humphrey's predecessor in the vice presidency.

Lyndon B. Johnson went to a place called South Vietnam, and when he came home he recommended that the United States go all out to thwart Communism there—a project that has escalated and escalated and escalated until now, nearly seven years later, it has turned into Lyndon B. Johnson's chief concern.

In a most ironic twist of events, Communists may have thwarted him, instead.

An Honest Day's Work

The Hollywood personalities victimized in an alleged conspiracy to cheat them in gin rummy games are being kept under cover.

But even without peeking to see who may be under there, it's safe to assume the victims of the rigging were big operators. These were not games for loose change but thousands of dollars at a belt.

The allegation is that innocents were cheated by elaborate paraphernalia that "looked" into their hands and relayed the information electronically to their opponents.

This gimmick altered what honest gin rummy players like to think is a matter of consummate skill into a tawdry project in cheating.

There is a difference between the clairvoyance that enables some players to "read" their opponents' hands and actual access to the number and color of the pips on the cards. The electronic gear at its best could not reveal what skilled bridge players manage to tell each other in the course of bidding, but it would give the same edge that bridge players in a recent international tournament were accused of giving by signals. That, sir, is cheating.

What made it heinous in the Hollywood incident, of course, was the way the cheaters won. If they had lost, there would have been no stir.

Losing would have been due to the superior skill of their honest opponents, who would have pocketed their winnings and made off with the loot as if cleaning up a few thousand bucks in a friendly gin rummy game with the fellows at the club was an honest day's work.

Research—Key To Growth

Dazzling new products that hit the market don't just happen. They are forced to happen. New methods for old and new jobs are not accidents; they are sought after eagerly.

A report by the National Science Foundation estimates research and development spending will total $24 billion for 1967 and will be around $25 billion in 1968.

It is through constant search by private and governmental agencies that new ideas, new products and new processes come into being.

There is no hulabaloo about research and development, unless a spectacular breakthrough of some type crops up. Nevertheless, it is a never-ending process devoted to making life a little better for the individual.

A new electronic gadget, a suit that wears longer, or better gasoline mileage are benefits of research and development.

So are medical advances and safer automobiles.

Research is the key to growth. In a time of gloomy predictions, it is good to know the national research and development program is healthy.

Purely Personal Observations

It has been a long time since last August when my favorite football fan and I spent a lazy afternoon in the sun watching the Cleveland Browns prepare for what was to be an extra-long season for some of them, especially their personable and perishable quarterback, Frank Ryan.

My respect for Paul Bunyan goes up whenever I take another whirl at the firewood, which is my 1967-68 winter project. Anyone who can wield an ax to any good purpose commands my respect. No implement taxes a man's physique more cruelly.

If I were making economics forecasts, I would be called out of the country for a stay of indefinite duration. No one can make a sound forecast of economic events in the midst of a war. If our undeclared enemy wanted to hit us where it would hurt, he would undeclare our undeclared war.

Good news of men who receive after-shave lotion from well-meaning friends who never have noticed the recipients never use after-shave lotion: The stuff works magic for curing athlete's foot. I haven't been troubled for years. At the first suggestion of itchiness, apply Old Yummy liberally.

I enjoy ribbing small-town friends by telling them how sorry I am to hear the library back home burned and all books were lost, including some that hadn't been colored in yet.

I can stand it if I never hear how many sets of His and Her camels that store catering to the bad-taste of oil rich Texans did not sell this Christmas.

The Cleveland Browns, explained the TV announcer, use only seven or eight plays. The one I like is when Houston intercepts a pass and breaks into a full gallop for the goal line. They should use that one more often.

I wonder if auto designers pay enough attention to the length of the human arm. It seems to me they expect even drivers with full-length arms to reach farther than it is safe to reach while keeping track of what lies dead ahead.

VICTOR RIESEL

Reuther Is Playing It Cool

WASHINGTON — There are two presidential reelection campaigns upcoming in the life of Walter Reuther — his own and that of Lyndon Johnson's.

Victor Riesel

The first doesn't worry him much. Reuther's not a betting man but even he will put a dollar on his own chances to beat the "United Caucus'" candidate at the auto union's May 4 convention in Atlantic City.

But the Detroit redhead, emotionally strained by his father's death and brother Roy's hospitalization, is not as certain of "Lyndon's" chances. And there hangs one of 1968's big political stories.

Walter Reuther wants a winner. If anything annoys him more than a full-length portrait of George Meany, it's backing a loser — especially in a presidential campaign. Reuther, a shrewd bargainer, knows how damaging an antagonist in the White House can be to his union.

Despite his strained relations with President Johnson, Reuther reported regularly and in person to Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz and to the White House all through the big three contract negotiations. The United Automobile Workers chief has a deep understanding and respect for power.

Few realize how strong this passion for a winner is, how long it has been with him and how effectively he has used it to build the UAW into the AFL-CIO's biggest union. It is, in fact, the free world's third largest labor organization.

Few know that this instinct swung him against Harry Truman in 1948. Until the final possible moment, Reuther fought for the nomination of Dwight Eisenhower at the Democratic party's Philadelphia convention.

So certain was the Detroiter that Mr. Truman would lose, that Reuther never really swung heartily into the campaign against Thomas Dewey. The union leader turned most of the Political Action Committee work over to his vice president, Jack Livingston.

Sometime in June of '48 Reuther heard that the editor of the UAW publication, then called Ammunition, was planning to run HST's picture on the front cover. "Walter sure made a fuss," one of his colleagues reminisced the other day.

Nothing personal. Reuther just did not want to sink with "Harry's" political ship. Nor does he want to go down with Johnson. So he's hedging. This will have double impact now on the machinery of both the AFL-CIO and the Democratic National Committee.

In Roy Reuther both these forces had one of the most brilliant political strategists and organizers. His specialty is getting millions of eligibles to register and then getting them out to vote.

But with Roy Reuther now hospitalized by what many believe to be a heart attack, it appears that he will not be the link between the three powerful political forces — the AFL-CIO, the Johnson machine, and the sprawling UAW Citizenship committee.

Thus Walter Reuther will be making more of the practical decisions on a day-to-day basis. He certainly is not likely to tie himself to the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE) which he has been boycotting financially and organizationally.

A sturdy consensus has it that he will slowly drift away from the big labor federation, quietly at first, because he must work with such big AFL-CIO unions as the Machinists during the swiftly approaching aerospace negotiations, and then more loudly and sharply.

Brother Victor Reuther believes that the final break will come at the union's Atlantic City convention.

That's what Victor told some visiting foreign labor leaders when they saw him a few days before the AFL-CIO convention met in Bal Harbour.

"Walter is a master of timing," one of his close colleagues mused in the presence of this correspondent the other day. "He'll leave the AFL-CIO at just the right dramatic moment. He doesn't want to be second to George Meany. He never intended to be second man in the merged federation.

"When we (the UAW) and the CIO merged with the AFL we began probing corrupt unions. But Meany beat us to it and ousted them at the first convention after the 1955 merger. So there was little to scream about. But now, you can be sure, Reuther is leaving."

And then what? Reuther will play it close politically. If Lyndon Johnson is shaky, there always are Senators McCarthy and Kennedy. If Johnson looks good, there always is time to bandwagon with him.

But what does Reuther really want? Those close to him are right — and I believe they are — Reuther someday wants to do an Arthur Goldberg.

He wants to serve in the United Nations. He wants to stand and debate toe-to-toe with the skilled diplomats. He wants to move in international affairs.

He has many heads of state as friends now and believes he can be envoy extraordinary to them in a world more and more governed by labor, Social Democratic, Socialist and Communist parties.

And since in 1974 the president of the U.S. may well be his good friend, Bob Kennedy, the Detroit redhead will tread easily politically in '68.

Although the bagpipe is generally considered the national musical instrument of Scotland, it did not originate in that country. There are records of it having been used in ancient Egypt and Persia.

The lowest point in North America is Death Valley, stretching along the California-Nevada border. It is 282 feet below sea level.

GOP Solution?

A majority of the voters of America today are undoubtedly dissatisfied with the present administration.

The question is whether they have made up their minds to defeat President Johnson and take any Republican who is nominated rather than give the incubent a chance during four more years to rectify his errors.

Latest Gallup Poll of Republican county chairmen shows clearly that the general discontent on domestic questions is more important in the present attitude of the voters than the debate about the Vietnam War.

Even on the Vietnam issue, a wide range of views is encourtered by Republican leaders in their communities. A large majority of the chairmen report a feeling the war is not being fought as effectively as it should be and there is a good deal of vacillation.

BUT THE REPUBLICAN chairmen reveal by their answers primarily that criticism of the country's internal problems comes up three times more often in conversations with voters than does the Vietnam War. Among the domestic issues most frequently named are "wasteful or irresponsible spending, crime and lawlessness, and the high cost of living and high taxes."

Many of the local chairmen contend that the issues at the grassroots level are more pronounced than they were in 1966 or 1964.

Too much government spending and the fear of a fiscal disaster are repeatedly mentioned. There are signs that the voters are really worried about this problem.

The higher cost of living and high taxes—listed by numerous Republican chairmen—was the No. 2 issue in the Gallup survey made in 1966 and was rarely mentioned in the 1964 survey.

Today, Republicans are saying to each other that they expect to get many votes by calling attention to "the insidious inflation brought on by irresponsible government spending."

As for crime and lawlessness, "demonstrations" related to civil-rights questions have stirred up a furor across the land. One Republican leader in the East said the best campaign argument available to his party is "the need to end the reign of terror and disrespect for law, engendered and encouraged by this administration."

There are the usual comments about "incompetent leadership and the "credibility gap" and "failures" of the poverty programs. The tendency is, as always, to blame the party in power for all the ills of the country.

This means the Johnson administration not only will have to present a constructive program to Congress in January, but will have to put into effect measures that will make a deep impression on the electorate.

The problem of fiscal policy cannot, of course, be remedied in a few months, particularly as long as the Vietnam War is on. But protesting voters are saying the administration should never have insisted on "guns and butter, too," and that many of the "great society" projects could have been deferred without serious damage to the country.

The breakdown of law enforcement probably is losing more votes for the Johnson administration than any other single issue. The feeling is that the administration is coddling rioters and "demonstrators" and that, despite condemnation from time to time of such tactics, the police powers of the federal government have not been used intensively to punish the conspirators and those who publicly preach treason.

THERE HAVE been elections in which the "intellectuals" and "liberals" have played an important part. The 1968 campaign begins to look like a contest in which the overwhelming majority of the people will be influenced not by "conservatism" or "liberalism," but by the many kinds of dissatisfaction on the domestic front, especially over the decline in the purchasing power of the dollar.

Under such circumstances, the administration in office gets blamed for almost everything. This is why in the next six months President Johnson and his party will have to perform a political miracle to change the mood of the nation.

But You Can't Make 'Em Buckle

Federal regulations on safety equipment will apply to automobiles manufactured after Dec. 31.

The new equipment may not be reflected in injury and death statistics, however. Automobiles manufactured after Dec. 31 must provide two cross-chest safety belts — one for each of the outside front seats — and six lap seat belts. Convertibles will not be required to have shoulder harnesses. Cars with bucket seats will need only one lap belt for each seat.

Other safety standards provide for collapsible steering wheel assemblies, dual braking systems, safer tires and rims, and other devices to protect occupants. Even stricter tire standards go into effect next Aug. 1.

The new safety belt regulations are the most controversial. Use of lap seat-belts and other safety equipment in the first nine months of this year is credited for cutting deaths by vehicle travel from 5.5 to 5.2. The date come from Dr. William Haddon, Jr., director of the National Highway Safety Bureau.

Dr. Haddon's bureau announced in August it was reconsidering its shoulder belt regulation on the basis of its own tests, U.S. Public Health Service suggestions, and recommendations from General Motors engineers. Some manufacturers promptly stopped plans to install the belts.

Lowell K. Bridwell's report cited a survey by Volvo, the Swedish auto maker, covering 28,000 accidents. Drivers wearing combination belts had 83 per cent fewer fatalities and 40 per cent fewer serious injuries. Shoulder-belted front-seat passengers had 77 per cent fewer deaths and 68 per cent fewer serious injuries. No death to a belted occupant occurred at speeds below 60 m.p.h.

But a nationwide seat-belt survey released by the Auto Industries Highway Safety Committee in December illustrates the usage problem. Of more than a million cars checked, about 65 per cent had lap-type seat belts. Hardly more than half of the motorists said they always used their belts on long trips. Only a trifle more than a third said they buckled up on local trips.

One other thing. The shoulder belts are going to boost the price of new cars. The industry estimate calls for $20 per car.

It Could Happen

Drivers in Columbiana County and Hancock County were able to get through the Christmas weekend without a highway death; Beaver County counted one fatality on the Turnpike.

The combination of winter weather, long hours of darkness, young people out of school, the general holiday inbibing makes for a high accident potential the last week of December.

Exhortations to "drive safely" have little effect on most motorists — it just can't happen to them, you know. But if you are behind the wheel these next few days, give some thought to the consequences of a high speed collision involving your family, your friends and yourself. The Michigan man killed on the Turnpike Christmas afternoon never thought it would happen to him.

Hubert Is On The Way

It is hard to calculate what the impact of Vice President Hubert Humphrey is going to be during his forthcoming tour of Africa. For the sake of the countries he will visit — Ivory Coast, Liberia, Ghana, the Congo, Ethiopia, Somalia, Kenya and Tunisia — the vice president's countrymen are hoping for the best.

These are among our glorious allies in the United Nations.

The United States has a lively interest in each of them. In Liberia, where Mr. Humphrey will attend inauguration ceremonies for William V. S. Tubman as president of that republic, the interest is as lively as natural rubber ozzing from rubber trees.

In the Congo, it is as lively as half a billion dollars.

Cynics, it is said, refer to Liberia as the 51st American state and Ethiopia as the 52nd. With a slight extension of imaginative logic, cynics could run the count to 60, by including as potential states such potential converts as Sierra Leone, Rwanda, Lesotho, Malawi, Gabon, Gambia and Dahomey.

Dahomey is a study in speculative statehood all by itself. It had a coupe d'etat over the weekend, and no one took any notice, not even its allies in the United Nations, where Dahomey's less than two million inhabitants, most of them primitives who never heard of the United States or the United Nations, are represented as being the equal, nation-wise, of Britian, Japan, France and Italy but somehow inferior to the vast Chinese People's Republic.

Vice President Humphrey will not visit Dahomey on his African tour. He will not visit Nigeria, Angola, Mozambique, Rhodesia, or the South African Republic, either. They are off his itinerary.

His mission is to cement friendships in a part of the world where the United States thinks it is thwarting Communism with signal success.

His fellow Americans can only pray there may be no repetition of a visit to Asia in 1961 by Mr. Humphrey's predecessor in the vice presidency.

Lyndon B. Johnson went to a place called South Vietnam, and when he came home he recommended that the United States go all out to thwart Communism there—a project that has escalated and escalated and escalated until now, nearly seven years later, it has turned into Lyndon B. Johnson's chief concern.

In a most ironic twist of events, Communists may have thwarted him, instead.

An Honest Day's Work

The Hollywood personalities victimized in an alleged conspiracy to cheat them in gin rummy games are being kept under cover.

But even without peeking to see who may be under there, it's safe to assume the victims of the rigging were big operators. These were not games for loose change but thousands of dollars at a belt.

The allegation is that innocents were cheated by elaborate paraphernalia that "looked" into their hands and relayed the information electronically to their opponents.

This gimmick altered what honest gin rummy players like to think is a matter of consummate skill into a tawdry project in cheating.

There is a difference between the clairvoyance that enables some players to "read" their opponents' hands and actual access to the number and color of the pips on the cards. The electronic gear at its best could not reveal what skilled bridge players manage to tell each other in the course of bidding, but it would give the same edge that bridge players in a recent international tournament were accused of giving by signals. That, sir, is cheating.

What made it heinous in the Hollywood incident, of course, was the way the cheaters won. If they had lost, there would have been no stir.

Losing would have been due to the superior skill of their honest opponents, who would have pocketed their winnings and made off with the loot as if cleaning up a few thousand bucks in a friendly gin rummy game with the fellows at the club was an honest day's work.

Flames Level Old Dwelling

LISBON — An unexplained fire early today leveled the former Tony Ross homestead in an abandoned strip mine area two miles northeast of here.

The two - story frame dwelling, vacant for more than 20 years, was completely ablaze by the time Lisbon volunteer firemen arrived.

The house was located on Grafton Rd., about a quarter mile west of Route 164 (the Lisbon - Columbiana Rd.) in an area older residents remember as Miller's mine.

Sheriff's deputy Dave Brothers saw the glow in the sky while patrolling on Route 30 near the County Home at 12:40 a. m. and radioed the county Jail to sound the alarm.

Mrs. Gail Labas of 127 Union St., Columbiana, granddaughter of the late Mr. Ross, was the owner. She said vandals had done considerable damage to the house and she had no insurance on it. The building had no electricity or gas, she said.

None Injured In 3 Mishaps

No one was injured in three mishaps investigated Tuesday by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

The driver of an auto which collided with a truck, causing it to strike a third on Route 267 failed to stop after the collision, officers said.

Carl Young, 41, of RD 3 said he was about to drive onto Route 267 when a car headed north on Route 267 rounded a curve and struck his truck which went off the west side of the road and hit a parked station wagon owned by Charles Travis of Lisbon St.

The accident occurred at 11:05 a. m. about a mile north of the city.

A convertible driven by Marvin Lee Darnell, 19, of Lisbon RD 3 was backed down a hill on County Rd. 427, hitting a tree at 9 a. m.

The Patrol said Darnell was unable to ascend the icy hill, and while backing, went off the east side and his car hit a tree.

Shortly after this, Robert Howard, 23, of RD 1 was stopped because of the traffic tieup due to the mishap, and his 1956 sedan was rammed from behind by a 1963 convertible driven by James Anderson, 23, of RD 1. Anderson was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Flames Level Old Dwelling

LISBON — An unexplained fire early today leveled the former Tony Ross homestead in an abandoned strip mine area two miles northeast of here.

The two - story frame dwelling, vacant for more than 20 years, was completely ablaze by the time Lisbon volunteer firemen arrived.

The house was located on Grafton Rd., about a quarter mile west of Route 164 (the Lisbon - Columbiana Rd.) in an area older residents remember as Miller's mine.

Sheriff's deputy Dave Brothers saw the glow in the sky while patrolling on Route 30 near the County Home at 12:40 a. m. and radioed the county Jail to sound the alarm.

Mrs. Gail Labas of 127 Union St., Columbiana, granddaughter of the late Mr. Ross, was the owner. She said vandals had done considerable damage to the house and she had no insurance on it. The building had no electricity or gas, she said.

Gas Rate

"alive." He said the rejection meant it remained on a first reading status. The second reading was given at a special meeting early last Saturday. Council split, 3-3, at that session and the deciding vote in favor of the ordinance was cast by Council President Ernest Lowe.

In all four years of the agreement, the ordinance calls for a first step in the rate structure of 30 cents per 100 cubic feet. The second step in the structure is 8.1 cents per 100 in the first year; 8.2 cents per 100 in the second year; 8.3 cents per 100 in the third year and 8.4 cents per 100 in the fourth year. The final step in the structure is the same in all four years, 7.1 cents per 100. It also retains the present $2.65 per month minimum charge.

When the ordinance was presented last night, Duffy commented:

"This is the fourth time this legislation has been presented — the only piece of legislation I know of that has been brought in four times. We defeated this once previously. Every piece of legislation should be governed by the Council rule book. Why did this rule die?"

—:—

HE CITED Kapp's ruling that the legislation still was valid after the rejection the first time it was presented for second reading and added: "Why did he rule against the rule book?"

"We just voted not to read it," Sample told Duffy.

"We voted on it on second reading and we voted it down," Duffy said. "Whatever it was, we voted it down."

Sample and Duffy then engaged in an exchange on the rules governing reading of ordinances.

"A lot of people are wondering what happened to this Council," Duffy said. "It is supporting the gas company and selling the people down the river."

"Where are all these people?" Sample said, indicating the empty chamber. "We've had three meetings on this."

Then Bucher made his proposal to refer the question back to the committee for more negotiation.

He said: "We asked our committee to investigate the gas rate. They did it in good faith and I am sure the gas company negotiated in good faith. But I can't see a 12.3 per cent raise for four years. The rate goes up the most in the third and fourth years. We never have asked what the rate would be in a two - year agreement. I move we refer this back to committee to what can be done in a two-year plan."

Duffy seconded the motion, but no vote was taken immediately. Murray then suggested that Council seek an attorney general's opinion on Kapp's ruling on the status of the ordinance.

KAPP remarked that the motion to renegotiate the gas rate could not be considered unles the action for third reading was withdrawn. Then he explained the law behind his ruling on the ordinance's status.

Ohio law says an ordinance must be read on "Three separate and distinct dates," but it does not require that the readings be "consecutive," he said. He said his opinion was based on state law.

Then the vote was taken on the motion for third reading.

Murray joined the three Republicans in voting for third reading, which made the count 5-2, Bucher and Duffy dissenting. Murray switched a "no" vote on the motion for final passage.

The first theater in the U.S. was at Philadelphia.

through the opening to manipulate the lock, officers said. But the window was stuck and would not open. The same method worked sucessfully on a window on the west side of the home.

Officers said a window was left open on the second floor of the home, apparently so the thief could escape onto a roof if someone returned.

The bottle full of dimes and the jewelry box containing 50-cent pieces were taken from Cahill's bedroom. The strong box with six life insurance policies, two auto policies and a house insurance policy, along with the bonds, was taken from Mrs. Cahill's bedroom. The small bank containing the quarters was taken from her dresser. The thief left through a rear door, officers said.

Police also filed a belated report on an entry Saturday night or Sunday at Gerace Brothers market at 221 W. 6th St.

The thief obtained 14 cartons of cigarets, a camera worth $12.95, postage stamps worth $8 and $25 to $30 in change.

Entry was gained by breaking a padlock on a rear door, giving access to a restroom. The intruder then forced another door to enter the store, officers said.

ters. The area where Thai troops and the Communists were reported facing each other is 350 miles northeast of Bangkok.

The Laotian Defense Ministry said in a communique late Tuesday that "reports arriving from various fronts confirm a general North Vietnamese offensive."

It reported attacks over the weekend on government army posts at Nam Bac, in Luang Prabang province, and at Phalane and on the outskirts of Nong Boualao, both in Savannakhet province, in southeast Laos.

"Our forces have been able to contain all these attacks," the communique said.

The communique also said that two North Vietnamese battalions had been ordered to move from Mahaxay toward Thakhek, a town on the Mekong River opposite Nakorn Phanom, a Communist hotbed in northeast Thailand.

The Laotian post at Nam Bac, north of Luang Prabang, the Royal Laotian capital, is within 100 miles of where Praphas said the three Red battalions were arrayed against his forces.

In Washington earlier, sources at the Pentagon and the State Department were inclined to see nothing particularly serious in the report of Communist activity in Laos. There were suggestions that the Communists were raiding to get provisions from the rice harvest and that they were tightening their defenses along the Ho Chi Minh trail through eastern Laos, which North Vietnamese troops use going to South Vietnam.

However, no U.S. official would discount the possibility that major military activity might be in the offing in Laos.

There was no immediate comment from these officials on the situation in Thailand.

Communist insurgency has been intensifying in northeast Thailand for two years. Thai government troops have reported killing an estimated 300 terrorists and capturing 4,000 terrorists and sympathizers. Government losses are believed to be about 200 dead.

biles and the 10 per cent excise tax on telephone service.

The present Social Security tax rate of 4.4 per cent on the first $6,600 income means a total payment of no more than $290.40 for both the employe and his employer.

It would have remained unchanged next year had Congress not approved earlier this month an increase in both benefits and the tax schedue. The maximum payment next year will now be $343.20.

This is now scheduled to rise to a maximum $460.20 by 1987 when the tax rate will be 5.9 per cent on both employe and employer.

For 1968, the same amount of tax will be deducted from weekly paychecks but it will be extended over a longer period.

Persons earning more than $6,600 will feel a bigger bite in take-home pay after Jan. 1. They have paid no Social Security tax in 1967 since their earnings exceeded $6,600. They will begin paying again after the first of the year.

Meanwhile, the Internal Revenue Service said it will begin this week to mail instruction booklets and forms for 1967 income tax returns. All taxpayers should receive their forms by Jan. 5, IRS said. The deadline for filing a tax return is next April 15.

According to one authority on early automobile history, there have been more than 2,200 cars of various makes manufactured in the United States during this century. And also more than 100 different makes of steam-powered cars were built during that time.

The small bank containing the quarters was taken from her dresser. The thief left through a rear door, officers said.

Police also filed a belated report on an entry Saturday night or Sunday at Gerace Brothers market at 221 W. 6th St.

The thief obtained 14 cartons of cigarets, a camera worth $12.95, postage stamps worth $8 and $25 to $30 in change.

Entry was gained by breaking a padlock on a rear door, giving access to a restroom. The intruder then forced another door to enter the store, officers said.

Thailand

ters. The area where Thai troops and the Communists were reported facing each other is 350 miles northeast of Bangkok.

The Laotian Defense Ministry said in a communique late Tuesday that "reports arriving from various fronts confirm a general North Vietnamese offensive."

It reported attacks over the weekend on government army posts at Nam Bac, in Luang Prabang province, and at Phalane and on the outskirts of Nong Boualao, both in Savannakhet province, in southeast Laos.

"Our forces have been able to contain all these attacks," the communique said.

The communique also said that two North Vietnamese battalions had been ordered to move from Mahaxay toward Thakhek, a town on the Mekong River opposite Nakorn Phanom, a Communist hotbed in northeast Thailand.

The Laotian post at Nam Bac, north of Luang Prabang, the Royal Laotian capital, is within 100 miles of where Praphas said the three Red battalions were arrayed against his forces.

In Washington earlier, sources at the Pentagon and the State Department were inclined to see nothing particularly serious in the report of Communist activity in Laos. There were suggestions that the Communists were raiding to get provisions from the rice harvest and that they were tightening their defenses along the Ho Chi Minh trail through eastern Laos, which North Vietnamese troops use going to South Vietnam.

However, no U.S. official would discount the possibility that major military activity might be in the offing in Laos.

There was no immediate comment from these officials on the situation in Thailand.

Communist insurgency has been intensifying in northeast Thailand for two years. Thai government troops have reported killing an estimated 300 terrorists and capturing 4,000 terrorists and sympathizers. Government losses are believed to be about 200 dead.

biles and the 10 per cent excise tax on telephone service.

The present Social Security tax rate of 4.4 per cent on the first $6,600 income means a total payment of no more than $290.40 for both the employe and his employer.

It would have remained unchanged next year had Congress not approved earlier this month an increase in both benefits and the tax schedue. The maximum payment next year will now be $343.20.

This is now scheduled to rise to a maximum $460.20 by 1987 when the tax rate will be 5.9 per cent on both employe and employer.

For 1968, the same amount of tax will be deducted from weekly paychecks but it will be extended over a longer period.

Persons earning more than $6,600 will feel a bigger bite in take-home pay after Jan. 1. They have paid no Social Security tax in 1967 since their earnings exceeded $6,600. They will begin paying again after the first of the year.

Meanwhile, the Internal Revenue Service said it will begin this week to mail instruction booklets and forms for 1967 income tax returns. All taxpayers should receive their forms by Jan. 5, IRS said. The deadline for filing a tax return is next April 15.

According to one authority on early automobile history, there have been more than 2,200 cars of various makes manufactured in the United States during this century. And also more than 100 different makes of steam-powered cars were built during that time.

Reporter Gives Appraisal Of War Outlook In Viet

This began in late October and is continuing.

The most experienced observers say that the Reds' firepower and willingness to sacrifice troops point to the most significant factor in 1967: An apparent Hanoi decision to launch a fight-to-the-finish struggle.

To this purpose the Communists are sending men and supplies openly down the Ho Chi Minh and Sihanouk trails into the South despite a fantastic bombing campaign. By December, the United States had dropped more bombs on North and South Vietnam than it dumped on Europe in World War II—about 100 pounds of explosives for every man, woman and child in the two Vietnams.

The Communists have placed Westmoreland and his allies in what could well be a critical position in 1968.

Pacification Overshadowed

Increased intensity in the conventional war has overshadowed the pacification program. Winning the hearts and minds of the population had to suffer while the allies stemmed Communist troops slipping into the Dak To hills and across the DMZ.

The commitment of allied troops to the borders and away from the people may have fulfilled an enemy aim. It this was the plan, it succeeded to a large degree in the 1st Corps region, to a limited degree in the 2nd Corps.

These factors may shape 1968 into the war's climax:

—North Vietnam has matched the allied troop buildup almost battalion for battalion. With the U.S. troop commitment stabilizing, the Communists might try to open more fronts, battering at American units necessarily spread thin across the country.

—American casualties could rise even more than in the past year. Communist forces are being exhorted by their leaders to strike first at the Americans. Enemy weaponry will become more sophisticated.

—Pressure will continue to mount for allied troops to invade Laos and Cambodia, and possibly North Vietnam, particularly if infiltration continues at the present level.

—If the war gets larger, the confidence of the Vietnamese people in the Saigon government will be tested. Many observers expect antiwar sentiment to rise among the population.

Recent American troop arrivals, including the rest of the 101st Airborne Division, have for the first time in months given Westmoreland an offensive striking force. He is expected to use it in spectacular style early in the new year.

Enemy Troop Buildup

But the enemy troop buildup threatens to neutralize even the 101st by spring, forcing American commanders to forego the offensive mobility that characterized American operations in 1966 and early 1967.

The North Vietnamese will be fielding nine infantry divisions by mid-1968 if current intelligence estimates prove correct. Presumably the Communists think this will place them in a better position to launch the kind of action that brought them success against the French. In October 1950 Ho Chi Minh used 23 Viet Minh battalions to smash French defenses along the Chinese border. He has not deployed anywhere near that number of battalions at one place in Vietnam.

Increased enemy capability may frustrate Westmoreland's plans to establish a 4th American corps headquarters at Can Tho, in the Mekong Delta, early in 1968. Each of the delta's 16 provinces, except the Hoa Hao religious sect's province of An Giang, has as many armed guerrillas and Communist cadre as did the whole of Malaya at the heights of its insurgency in 1950. Westmoreland is known to be anxious to start cleaning the delta out with U.S. forces.

American Deaths Rose

American dead in the tougher fighting this year rose to an average of 193 a week, against 92 in 1966. Troop commitments increased by a third this year. Casualties doubled.

American strategy is to keep casualties to a minimum by the maximum use of supporting air and artillery power, but the Reds' creation of battlefields in the periphery mountains tended to neutralize the effectiveness of supporting fire.

The rising sophistication of Communist weaponry is worrying American commanders. They find that some of their infantry units are outgunned in head-on clashes in the jungle. Communist troops carry the highly effective AK47 automatic rifle. Many have started slinging B40 and B50 bazooka-type rocket launchers around their necks and using them effectively.

Whole regiments of enemy heavy rocketeers began deploying in South Vietnam in 1967, armed with the 122 fin-stabilized rocket and the 140mm rocket. Several of these units are known to be in the country but have not yet shown up in battle.

Along the DMZ the Communists have deployed artillery and rockets, not as many as the 350 pieces pitted against the French at Dien Bien Phu, but enough to give U.S. Marines there a miserable existence.

One knowledgeable American has expressed fear that Vietnam is becoming a contest in weaponry between the United States and Russia. The Soviet Union provides all the sophisticated weapons in the North Vietnamese arsenal.

Confidence Watched

The confidence of the Vietnamese people in the government that it elected this year is being carefully watched. Approximately four million people, or one quarter of the population, have been uprooted from their homes. By the best available estimates, 25,000 civilians were killed this year. Hundreds of villages were burned to the ground by both sides, and an estimated 5 per cent of the land under cultivation was defoliated with herbicide sprays to prevent the Viet Cong from using it.

A senior American civilian in the 2nd corps region told a reporter this month: "If the people in my area had the choice of continuing the war, or living in peace under the Viet Cong, they'd take the Viet Cong." This was an extreme viewpoint but an indicator of how depressing the war has become to many of the people.

More than 25 per cent of all U.S. households now own two or more automobiles, according to Department of Commerce figures.

Men Trapped As Car Veers Off Sugar St.

Two men were trapped briefly in an auto which came to a halt on its roof Tuesday night after veering off Sugar St. and rolling over three times into a vacant lot, police reported.

Frank E. Irving, 58, of 1209 Jennings Ave. and Harold Cook of Gaston Pl. a passenger, were taken to City Hospital by ambulance after officers freed them from the overturned 1968 sedan by smashing out the right rear window. Irving was cited on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol. He suffered a laceration of the head and Cook was treated for contusions of the scalp.

Irving's sedan was termed a total loss from the mishap at 7:17. Officers said he was driving north on Sugar St., which is restricted to southbound travel, and turned his car to the left thinking he was headed onto E. 6th St. The car went over the sidewalk and into a vacant lot where a building had been razed, traveling 53 feet before it came to a halt. Officrs said the car rolled over three times after leaving the street.

Patrolmen James W. Woods and Charles Coen investigated.

City firemen stood by whlie the two were removed.

A 77-year - old Beaver County man escaped injury Tuesday afternoon when his car plunged off Pennsylvania Ave. at Bridge St. and crashed into a home at 1790 Pennsylvania Ave., police reported.

The 1957 four-door sedan operated by Thomas J. Hoffman of Post Office Box 192, New Brighton, struck a home owned by the First National Bank and occupied by Mrs. Dorothy McGonigal, doing "considerable damage" to the house, police said.

Hoffman told Patrolman Samuel E. Hayes he was traveling east on Pennsylvania Ave. when the steering mechanism of the car locked, causing the car to veer across the street and down the hillside at Bridge St., crashing into the north side of the home. The rear of his car was damaged. Police said Hoffman resides at the Griffin Nursing Home at 1103 Riverside Ave., Wellsville.

Meanwhile, two cars were damaged in a mishap at Walnut and E. 5th St., Tuesday at 3:49 p.m.

The mishap involved a 1964 sedan driven by Virginia A. Wehner, 32, of Selbyville, Del., and a 1963 four - door sedan operated by Cynthia Roxanne Brewer, 16, of 445 1st Ave.

Each driver said the traffic light was in her favor, officers said. The Delaware driver was driving north on Walnut St. and turning left onto E. 5th St. The local girl was traveling east on E. 5th St.

The "Olive Branch Petition" was a message sent to King George III by the American colonists after the Revolution had begun, offering to call off the revolution if the king would remove his soldiers and give the colonists an even chance. The message never reached the king.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: For young parents on the go like us who don't have those fancy insulated bags or car adapter bottle warmers, here's what to do:

Put your baby's bottles in the freezing compartment for five minutes for an extra chill.

While chilling the bottles, boil a large pan of water and pour it in a vacuum bottle. Get out a one-pound coffee can, too.

Wrap baby's bottles separately in terry cloth dish towels or hand towels, and secure with a rubber band. When feeding baby that towel is better than a bib. It fits snugly beneath baby's chin and around his shoulders.

When feeding time comes around use that coffee can as a bottle warmer by pouring some hot water in it and setting the bottle down inside. The boiled water in the vacuum bottle is HOT and works fast, so watch the bottle closely. When the bottle is warm, pour the water back in the vacuum bottle to be used over again for the next feeding.

MRS. M. J. GRIFFIN.

DEAR HELOISE: That nylon net again:

A tube of it pulled over a terry cloth hand towel is just great as a back scrubber.

It is long enough to reach for seesawing, and sure feels good. I couldn't do without mine.

GRANDMA.

Florida Man Has Problem, Thousands Of Teeth In It

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Matthew Comito has a problem with thousands of teeth in it.

Comito has a jug filled with 300 denture plates, most of them flotsam picked up along Miami Beach in past years.

He'd like to return some of them to their owners but in spite of correspondence, telephone calls and one public showing of the dentures, Comito has yet to find a single right mouth.

"It's quite a challenge to find someone," he said.

Comito is an instructor in dental technology at the Lindsey Hopkins Public Adult Education Center. The jug of false teeth is on his desk in the classroom.

"They cost a minimum of $150 each," Comito said, "but they're not worth two cents to anyone else except the owners."

Comito got most of the dentures last summer from lifeguards at Miami Beach who had picked them up after they floated ashore over the years.

"Some people go out fishing and do more drinking than fishing," Comito explained. "If they're swimming, they get a mouthful of water and lose the teeth."

Comito said each of the approximately 30 million denture wearers in America should have his name ground into the plate for identification and return.

He said most of the plates floating ashore in Miami probably were lost further south, perhaps in the Florida keys.

"Anybody who lost their plates in the Miami area might look for them up in Fort Lauderdale or Palm Beach," he said.

Essex To Recommend Negro For High Education Position

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Appointment of Ohio's first assistant superintendent for urban education, a Negro will be recommended to the State Board of Education when it meets Jan. 3, School Supt. Martin Essex said today.

The man to be recommended is Robert O. Greer, 52, now a high school principal at Gary, Ind., and a graduate of Ohio State University. He would assume the new post Feb. 5 if the appointment is approved, and would become one of the highest ranking Negroes in American education.

Essex said Greer would help mount the state board's "frontal attack" on the learning problems of underprivileged youngsters. A Commission on Urban School Development is being organized to work with Greer in studying the needs of large city schools and designing new curricula, programs and facilities to meet them.

Among his responsibilities would be the newly enacted state special programs for educationally and culturally deprived children, correlation of the state-funded programs with Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act in urban centers, and broadened activities under the ESEA Title III for the development of new and innovative projects.

Hancock Man Held For Two Grand Juries

A Weirton resident is being held in the Hancock County jail at New Cumberland in lieu of $8,000 in bonds on two charges which will be considered by the January and September grand juries.

Cleveland C. Deans, 30, of 1935 Ridge Ave. was bound to the January grand jury late this morning when he appeared before Squire John D. Herron at New Cumberland and waived a preliminary hearing. Herron set bond at $3,000.

Deans is charged by New Cumberland police with stealing $4,500 worth of equipment from the Hancock Health Department offices behind the Courthouse during the Thanksgiving weekend.

Shortly after that charge was filed another was lodged by Weirton police alleging Dean broke into the Dunbar elementary school there last Jan. 1.

Tuesday Dean appeared before Weirton Municipal Judge Martin S. Bogorad and was bound to the September term of the grand jury. Police say Dean took two tape recorders and a record player valued at $350 from the school.

Emmanuel Loucas was appointed Deans' attorney.

Egypt Agrees To Clear Canal And Free 15 Trapped Ships

CAIRO (AP) — Egypt has finally agreed to clear the southern half of the Suez Canal and release 15 foreign ships trapped in the waterway, the semiofficial newspaper Al Ahram indicated today.

Al Ahram, which often speaks for President Gamal Abdel Nasser, said Nasser's government "undertook an extensive study of the problem in all its aspects" and established that clearance of the southern part of the waterway was "feasible."

The paper said the government made the study in response to repeated requests from Poland, France and Britain, which have ships trapped in the canal, and from India.

Egypt turned down a similar request last September, insisting that no part of the canal could be cleared until Israeli troops withdrew from the east bank of the canal and other territories they occupied in the June war.

By refusing to clear the northern end of the canal and reopen it to navigation, Nasser would still retain a bargaining lever to support his demands for Israeli withdrawal.

Al Ahram gave no indication when clearing operations might start or how long they were expected to take.

Fourteen of the ship are trapped in the Great Bitter Lake and one is in Lake Timsah. They include the American freighter African Glenn, which was chartered by the U.S. Defense Department, as well as ships flying the flags of Britain, France, West Germany, Poland, Bulgaria, Sweden and Czechoslovakia.

Skeleton crews have been left aboard the ships to maintain them and the rest of the crewmen have been sent home.

MUMPS VACCINE IS NOW VERY EFFECTIVE

Many people who rightly fear the effects of mumps, evidently do not know how easily it can be avoided. Mumps are more dangerous than people thought in past years. If a man of reproductive age gets this disease, the possibility exists that it can settle in the reproductive organs and cause sterility.

Many adults have forgotten whether or not they had the mumps as a child. There is now a positive action skin test which will tell your physician. For, if you have not had mumps then the mumps vaccine is a "Must." It can prevent much potential harm.

DEAR HELOISE: For young parents on the go like us who don't have those fancy insulated bags or car adapter bottle warmers, here's what to do:

Put your baby's bottles in the freezing compartment for five minutes for an extra chill.

While chilling the bottles, boil a large pan of water and pour it in a vacuum bottle. Get out a one-pound coffee can, too.

Wrap baby's bottles separately in terry cloth dish towels or hand towels, and secure with a rubber band. When feeding baby that towel is better than a bib. It fits snugly beneath baby's chin and around his shoulders.

When feeding time comes around use that coffee can as a bottle warmer by pouring some hot water in it and setting the bottle down inside. The boiled water in the vacuum bottle is HOT and works fast, so watch the bottle closely. When the bottle is warm, pour the water back in the vacuum bottle to be used over again for the next feeding.

MRS. M. J. GRIFFIN.

DEAR HELOISE: That nylon net again:

A tube of it pulled over a terry cloth hand towel is just great as a back scrubber.

It is long enough to reach for seesawing, and sure feels good. I couldn't do without mine.

DEAR HELOISE: When melting oleo to pour in pancake or waffle batter, I put a little water in the pan when I heat the margarine. This prevents the margarine from browning and the water just steams off.

DEAR HELOISE: Most mothers like to save their childrens' report cards and photos, etc. But these things will clutter up drawers, get mixed up or may become lost just lying around the house.

Why not buy a scrap book or some heavy paper that won't yellow, and has loose leaf holes so you can tie it together with a cord or ribbon. Make SURE you can add more sheets if needed.

On the first page write your child's name and history. On the following pages put the birth record, then the report cards, pictures, certificates, greeting cards, school poems, clippings, etc.

You can use photo mountings or tape to stick these on.

The books can be kept up to date for many years and anytime you want to look something up you know right where to go.

Egypt Agrees To Clear Canal And Free 15 Trapped Ships

CAIRO (AP) — Egypt has finally agreed to clear the southern half of the Suez Canal and release 15 foreign ships trapped in the waterway, the semiofficial newspaper Al Ahram indicated today.

Al Ahram, which often speaks for President Gamal Abdel Nasser, said Nasser's government "undertook an extensive study of the problem in all its aspects" and established that clearance of the southern part of the waterway was "feasible."

MUMPS VACCINE IS NOW VERY EFFECTIVE

Many people who rightly fear the effects of mumps, evidently do not know how easily it can be avoided. Mumps are more dangerous than people thought in past years. If a man of reproductive age gets this disease, the possibility exists that it can settle in the reproductive organs and cause sterility.

Many adults have forgotten whether or not they had the mumps as a child. There is now a positive action skin test which will tell your physician. For, if you have not had mumps then the mumps vaccine is a "Must." It can prevent much potential harm.

Bradley Fights Extradition To Face Garrison's Charges

LOS ANGELES (AP) — His lawyer says Edgar Eugene Bradley will fight extradition to face charges by New Orleans Dist. Atty. James Garrison that Bradley conspired to kill President John F. Kennedy.

"I will fight extradition tooth and nail," attorney George Jensen said Tuesday. "I will not let him go to Louisiana."

The attorney said Bradley would surrender today in Los Angeles.

The Los Angeles district attorney's office issued a fugitive complaint Tuesday against Bradley, 49, of North Hollywood.

The complaint was based on a Louisiana warrant obtained by Garrison charging Bradley with conspiracy to commit murder.

In a news conference Tuesday in New Orleans, Garrison said Bradley worked in 1964 to drum up presidential support in California for FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

He also declared that Lee Harvey Oswald, identified by the Warren Commission as Kennedy's assassin, was an agent of the Central Intelligence Agency and that Oswald had tipped the FBI about the assassination plot five days before it happened. He said Oswald was a "patsy."

The Louisiana warrant "doesn't mention President Kennedy or any other alleged victim," Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger told a news conference Tuesday.

Younger added that the complaint "does not indicate opinion on our part as to the validity of the charge or the guilt or innocence of Mr. Bradley.

Younger said the complaint was just "a simple procedural act to get this person into court." The case can be continued for up to 30 days for Louisiana Gov. John J. McKeithen to undertake extradition proceedings. The final decision rests with California Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Bradley has denied Garrison's accusations, contending he knows nothing of Kennedy killing other than want has been made public.

He is the second man Garrison has charged with conspiracy in the 1963 assassination of Kennedy in Dallas. Under indictment is a New Orleans businessman, Clay Shaw.

Former Student Gets 2-15 Years On Dope Charge

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)— Conviction on a narcotics charge has resulted in a 2-to-15 year reformatory term for a former Bowling Green State University student.

The term, set Tuesday for Charles Tabasko Jr., 20, will be served at the Mansfield Reformatory. He was arrested June 30 in his Bowling Green residence.

Guards And Deputies Thwart Pittsburgh Jail Break Plot

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Guards and sheriff's deputies acting on a tip have thwarted an attempted jail break by five prisoners at the Allegheny County Jail.

They rushed the five, armed with homemade knives, as they held a guard in a room off the prison laundry. They quickly overpowered the inmates and halted the break inside the prison walls.

Warden William Robinson notified authorities that a break would be attempted Tuesday night.

Deputies and guards were staked out and when word came "they're going over," they moved in and grabbed the prisoners.

Guard Frank Williams, 40, of Pittsburgh, being held as a hostage, said, "They grabbed me from behind and stuck the shiv (knife) against the back of my neck. They said, 'We don't want to hurt you but we want to get out.' They took me to the round room and said, 'Get the ropes, tie him up.'"

At that point the guards rushed in.

Authorities said the prisoners were Larry Dolney, 18, of McKeesport; Ronald Abram, 21, of Pittsburgh; Herbert Smith Jr., 22, of Duquesne; David Lucat, 20, of McKeesport; and William Evans, 18, of Braddock.

Dolney was awaiting trial for murder and Abram was awaiting trial for armed robbery. Smith and Lucat were serving sentences for escaping from the workhouse and Evans was serving a disorderly conduct sentence.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Fritz is a good provider and has high morals. When I look around and see what some of my friends and relatives put up with from their husbands, I feel guilty about complaining, but here goes:

The problem is that Fritz is a chronic knocker. I don't mind for myself because after 20 years I'm accustomed to it, but I'm afraid his negative attitude is bad for our children.

He knocks the school system, the city officials, the church, the neighbors, the federal government, the AMA, the USO, the ADA and the DAR. He's neither reactionary nor liberal. He's simply against everything.

When we sit down to dinner it's one destructive statement after another. I hate to say to the children, "Don't listen to your father." But I'm deeply concerned that they will pick up his sour outlook on life. Comment, please. — THUMBS DOWN ON EVERYTHING.

Dear Thumbs: Attitudes are caught, not taught. When the conversation at home is weighted heavily on the negative side, the children are bound to grow up cynical and pessimistic.

Don't argue with your husband, change the subject. Turn the conversation to something you want the kids to be FOR.

Praise the people who are doing the constructive things in the world. Talk about courage and justice and honesty. Kids need something to look up to more than they need something to look down on.

Blissful Misses

Dear Ann: Can two women get married? I don't wish to go into detail as to the reason I'm asking this question.

You may assume it's either a gag (like to win a bet) or perhaps the women are lesbians and wish to live together as "man" and "wife." What I need to know is would a marriage between two people of the same sex be considered legal.

Please don't toss this in the circular file. I'm serious. — G.C.N.Y.

Dear G.C.N.Y.: If you know a couple of women who want to get married, tell them okay, but not to each other. The word marriage means the state of being wedded to a person of the opposite sex.

In Illinois, failure to consummate a marriage in the sexual sense is grounds for annulment. Since it is understood that marriage guarantees the privileges of a heterosexual relationship, two members of the same sex could not possibly be considered suitable marriage partners.

Giftless Party

Dear Ann: I was fascinated by the letter in your column from the mother whose son was going to Vietnam. She was annoyed with the relatives who came to his going-away party because not one brought a present.

Does this mother believe that going to war is something to celebrate? Does she think it is like going away to college, or being married?

Perhaps the relatives understand the grim realities of the situation and this is why they did not come laden with gifts. Please tell her so. — NO HAWK.

Dear No: I did not feel (as the mother did) that the guests were clods because they did not bring gifts. Nor do I agree with you that gift-giving under these circumstances would be inappropriate.

A gift need not be a memento of a celebration. It could be a thoughtful token or a little remembrance which might be useful.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

New Angle On Desirable Weight

The tag end of the old year is a good time for taking stock. Are you overweight or overly fat? When too much of your weight is in fat, you are in potential trouble. In recent years the most meaningful research with regard to weight has been directed toward body composition. Obesity is defined as an excess amount of fatty tissue. It is the excess fat that is a health hazard, since it is associated with the chronic degenerative diseases. Ask your doctor.

Ida Jean Kain

For moderate degrees of overweight it is sometimes difficult to tell how much of the weight is due to fat. Scale weight doesn't always tell the story. You can be overly fat and not weigh too heavy by the scales. Soft, sedentary persons can be obese at normal weight, or even underweight. Conversely, you can be heavy by the scales, but lean if your weight is principally protein (muscle) and big boned structure, rather than fat. Regardless of weight, body composition is the basis of determining obesity.

OF COURSE, if you look frankly fat you probably are carrying an excess of fatty tissue. This will show up in the skin fold test. Roughly, half the body fat accumulates under the skin. The doctor, using calipers can measure the thickness of a double layer of skin and its attached fat, and estimate how much of your weight is in fatty tissue.

For practical purposes, the pinch test gives a fair indication. Between thumb and forefinger pick up a fold of flesh at the midriff, just over lower ribs. To try it, bend slightly to the side and pick up a fold of flesh on the relaxed side. If the double fold is thicker than one inch, that means an excess of subcutaneous fat. That's not muscle, that's fat.

HOW MUCH weight have you added since your 25th birthday? Growth is completed by age 25. If you were healthy, normal weight at that age, any weight you have added since can be regarded as excess fat.

If you are overweight generally, change your food habits so as to cut calories and reduce. Add exercise so as to tone up as you slim down. You don't want to be thin and flabby either. Exercise will help you to have a firm, well - toned body.

Send stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for Eat To Build Leanness. Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review.

Dear Ann Landers: Fritz is a good provider and has high morals. When I look around and see what some of my friends and relatives put up with from their husbands, I feel guilty about complaining, but here goes:

The problem is that Fritz is a chronic knocker. I don't mind for myself because after 20 years I'm accustomed to it, but I'm afraid his negative attitude is bad for our children.

He knocks the school system, the city officials, the church, the neighbors, the federal government, the AMA, the USO, the ADA and the DAR. He's neither reactionary nor liberal. He's simply against everything.

When we sit down to dinner it's one destructive statement after another. I hate to say to the children, "Don't listen to your father." But I'm deeply concerned that they will pick up his sour outlook on life. Comment, please. — THUMBS DOWN ON EVERYTHING.

Dear Thumbs: Attitudes are caught, not taught. When the conversation at home is weighted heavily on the negative side, the children are bound to grow up cynical and pessimistic.

Don't argue with your husband, change the subject. Turn the conversation to something you want the kids to be FOR.

Praise the people who are doing the constructive things in the world. Talk about courage and justice and honesty. Kids need something to look up to more than they need something to look down on.

Blissful Misses

Dear Ann: Can two women get married? I don't wish to go into detail as to the reason I'm asking this question.

You may assume it's either a gag (like to win a bet) or perhaps the women are lesbians and wish to live together as "man" and "wife." What I need to know is would a marriage between two people of the same sex be considered legal.

Please don't toss this in the circular file. I'm serious. — G.C.N.Y.

Dear G.C.N.Y.: If you know a couple of women who want to get married, tell them okay, but not to each other. The word marriage means the state of being wedded to a person of the opposite sex.

In Illinois, failure to consummate a marriage in the sexual sense is grounds for annulment. Since it is understood that marriage guarantees the privileges of a heterosexual relationship, two members of the same sex could not possibly be considered suitable marriage partners.

Giftless Party

Dear Ann: I was fascinated by the letter in your column from the mother whose son was going to Vietnam. She was annoyed with the relatives who came to his going-away party because not one brought a present.

Does this mother believe that going to war is something to celebrate? Does she think it is like going away to college, or being married?

Perhaps the relatives understand the grim realities of the situation and this is why they did not come laden with gifts. Please tell her so. — NO HAWK.

Dear No: I did not feel (as the mother did) that the guests were clods because they did not bring gifts. Nor do I agree with you that gift-giving under these circumstances would be inappropriate.

A gift need not be a memento of a celebration. It could be a thoughtful token or a little remembrance which might be useful.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

New Angle On Desirable Weight

The tag end of the old year is a good time for taking stock. Are you overweight or overly fat? When too much of your weight is in fat, you are in potential trouble. In recent years the most meaningful research with regard to weight has been directed toward body composition. Obesity is defined as an excess amount of fatty tissue. It is the excess fat that is a health hazard, since it is associated with the chronic degenerative diseases. Ask your doctor.

Ida Jean Kain

For moderate degrees of overweight it is sometimes difficult to tell how much of the weight is due to fat. Scale weight doesn't always tell the story. You can be overly fat and not weigh too heavy by the scales. Soft, sedentary persons can be obese at normal weight, or even underweight. Conversely, you can be heavy by the scales, but lean if your weight is principally protein (muscle) and big boned structure, rather than fat. Regardless of weight, body composition is the basis of determining obesity.

OF COURSE, if you look frankly fat you probably are carrying an excess of fatty tissue. This will show up in the skin fold test. Roughly, half the body fat accumulates under the skin. The doctor, using calipers can measure the thickness of a double layer of skin and its attached fat, and estimate how much of your weight is in fatty tissue.

For practical purposes, the pinch test gives a fair indication. Between thumb and forefinger pick up a fold of flesh at the midriff, just over lower ribs. To try it, bend slightly to the side and pick up a fold of flesh on the relaxed side. If the double fold is thicker than one inch, that means an excess of subcutaneous fat. That's not muscle, that's fat.

HOW MUCH weight have you added since your 25th birthday? Growth is completed by age 25. If you were healthy, normal weight at that age, any weight you have added since can be regarded as excess fat.

If you are overweight generally, change your food habits so as to cut calories and reduce. Add exercise so as to tone up as you slim down. You don't want to be thin and flabby either. Exercise will help you to have a firm, well - toned body.

Send stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for Eat To Build Leanness. Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review.

At Tuesday Meeting

Chester Council Airs Fund Needs

A proposal to drop the driver license fee program and substitute a city income tax instead was turned down Tuesday night during a meeting of Chester Council, the legislators pointing out such a tax is not legal under West Virginia law.

Councilman Robert Kincaid proposed the change, saying the city is in need of more money and the license fee doesn't provide it.

Kincaid called the license fee a sore spot with many residents and added they might look more kindly on an income tax program.

He declared at least 50 per cent of the residents work out of town and many pay a city income tax in Midland, where a majority are employed at Crucible Steel.

—:—

CITY CLERK Donald Hood pointed out, however, the city can't adopt an income tax program since "the legislature won't allow it." Hood noted there are no cities in West Virginia with such a tax and explained it is the reason so many communities in the state have the driver license program. Hood said few other states have the driver licenses plan, since most have the power to impose other forms of taxes.

Kincaid then suggested the city might raise the driver license fee to $5 a year in order to produce additional funds. But the proposal gained no support from other members.

Council carried on a lengthy discussion concerning the advisability of leaving traffic lights running in sequence all night or turning them on the blinker phase to guide the small amount of late night traffic which passes through the municipality.

Kincaid was the advocate of the blinker policy, saying he again is receiving complaints that tractor - trailer rigs are shifting gears at many points, since the lights presently are running in sequence, and causing a disturbance to residents who live along Carolina Ave. Kincaid said the small amount of traffic does not warrant using the lights early in the morning and in fact hinders traffic which must stop at the light and wait while there is no traffic approaching in the opposite direction.

HE POINTED out it is not good economics to burn 12 light bulbs in each traffic light unit all night when only four are needed for the blinker operation.

But other members and Police Chief Audley Campbell told Kincaid they want no part of the blinkers since the setup plays havoc with the units' mechanisms during the cold weather.

Councilman Charles Kology pointed out when the blinkers were used until a few weeks ago when Council reversed its decision many bulbs had to be replaced each morning when the lights were switched back to their sequential operation.

He said the heat striking the bulbs after they have grown extremely cold during the night causes them to shatter and pointed out one morning five bulbs had to be replaced in the unit at 5th St. and Carolina Ave. Kology remarked since Council decided during its last meeting to allow the lights to continue through the night bulb replacement has dropped to virtually nothing. Previously the bulbs were being replaced almost daily.

CAMPBELL said the units, which are very old and costly to keep repaired, presently are working well, but declared the mechanisms are damaged when they do not run constantly. He said he favors the blinkers when the weather is warm.

But Kincaid remained adamant, saying he is opposed to having the lights operate all night. "Every other little town does it," he noted, asking they be placed on the blinker phase.

"I just wanted to make Chester like the rest of the world," Kincaid said, "and not have it behind the eight ball."

Hood said the city must pay two men to work on the traffic lights when they become inoperable, but Kincaid interjected the city must pay them regardless.

Kincaid also told Council it should begin laying back some funds to replace the traffic lights when they finally become too costly to operate.

Council will investigate the possibility of changing shifts of policemen to provide protection throughout the night. Noting the recent increase in burglaries, the members agreed a man should be working throughout the night.

Patrolman Robert Wilson told Council that when he was patrolling one night he "thinks we scared off some hoodlums who would have cleaned out a place."

Mayor Burton Ward notified Council that Russ Davis has resigned his position on the Water and Sewage Board. Upon Ward's recommendation, council appointed Donald Hissam to the post.

The street committee will look into requests for street lights in various parts of the community.

Quartet Breaks Up After Nearly 17 Years As Unit

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The members of the Dave Brubeck Quartet went their own ways today after a brilliant jazz career of more than a decade.

The four performed their music spiced with unorthodox, varied rhythms for what they said would be their last time together Tuesday night in the Pittsburgh Hilton before a crowd of 1,700.

It had been nearly 17 years since Brubeck combined his piano with the alto sax of Paul Desmond in San Francisco. After trying out an assortment of sidemen, the pair settled on drummer Joe Morello and bassist Gene Wright six years later.

In the 11 years the four improvised together with counterpoint over shifting but insistent rhythms, they rose as a quartet and individuals to the top of the nation's jazz polls.

Brubeck said the group's breakup was a unanimous desire to branch into something else and end their vagabond existence.

Brubeck, who was trained as a classical musician and confesses a deep debt to Bach, said he'll turn to composing. His oratorio, "The Light in the Wilderness," is to be performed at the University of North Carolina and in Cincinnati during the next two months.

Minor Repairs Set For U.S. Nuclear Sub

PEARL HARBOR, Hawaii (AP)—Minor repairs face the U.S. nuclear submarine Guardfish, pulled off a reef near the Pearl Harbor entrance during high tide Tuesday.

The vessel ran aground Sunday night and attempts to dislodge it at high tide Monday were unsuccessful. There were no injuries and no radiation hazard.

Navy investigators were appointed to find out why the Guardfish ran aground on the trial run to test the main and auxiliary propulsion systems.

American Independent Party

Wallace Seen Qualifying For California's Ballot

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Gov. George Wallace of Alabama appears to have won his bid to qualify for California's 1968 presidential ballot.

Wallace, whose drive to get the 66,059 California registrants needed to qualify his American Independent party was pronounced almost certain to fail by state election officials just two weeks ago, already has better than 77 per cent of that total in just nine counties.

H. P. Sullivan, assistant secretary of state, said Tuesday a certified total of 51,206 Californians have registered to date as American Independents in the state's nine major counties.

With Jan. 2 the deadline for registrations, said Sullivan, "It looks unofficially like he will make it."

Another 1968 candidate, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, meanwhile called contemptuous a federal agency's rejection of his request for equal television and radio time to answer statements by President Johnson.

McCarthy, a Minnesota Democrat who says he'll challenge Johnson in several 1968 primary elections, wrote to Chairman Rosel H. Hyde of the Federal Communications Commission:

"I ask you for an explanation of this contemptuous handling of a serious manner that is now before the commission of which you are chairman."

McCarthy said the only notice he received of the FCC's decision came in reprints of the agency's public notices on its policies of political broadcasts and equal time, mailed by the FCC to Blair Clark, the senator's campaign manager.

The request for the FCC to order the three major networks to provide equal time came last week after Johnson appeared in an hour-long interview program in prime time. In the course of the interview, Johnson suggested McCarthy and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., were working together to gain the nomination —a charge both senators have persistently denied.

In other political developments:

—Comedian Dick Gregory said he hopes to organize demonstrations massive enough to block the 1968 Democratic National Convention scheduled for Chicago the week of Aug. 25.

Gregory told newsmen in Chicago the Democratic party insulted Negroes by choosing the city as a convention site because Chicago "has not cleaned up its racial problems. They just use police force."

—The New York Times reported that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has eliminated George Romney as a serious contender for the GOP presidential nomination on grounds the Michigan governor "has been on so many sides of so many questions that one begins to wonder just where he does stand."

The former Republican chief executive's feelings about Romney, an announced candidate for the nomination, were made to his golfing companions in Southern California, where he spends the winter, the Times said.

In Saigon, where he was winding up an inspection visit to South Vietnam, Romney was asked by newsmen about the remark attributed to Eisenhower.

"I'd prefer to rely on what Gen. Eisenhower wrote me before I left," he said. "In essence, he was pleased that I had announced as a candidate and he was also pleased that the Republicans would have an opportunity to choose" from among several candidates.

Ex-Convict Is Sought In Kidnap Case

WELLINGTON, Utah (AP) — A search was under way in central Utah today for a man described as a 25-year-old ex-convict wanted for the reported Christmas Eve kidnaping of a high school girl in Indiana.

Janet Downen, 16, of Crawfordsville, Ind., was rescued unharmed Tuesday night after one man was wounded in downtown Wellington.

She told Wellington City Marshal Delon Atwood that two men had abducted her at gunpoint as she was leaving a Crawfordsville parking lot in the family car on her way to Christmas Eve church services.

Carbon County Sheriff Albert Passic said Thomas Franklin Stevens, 23, of West Terre Haute, Ind., suffered flesh wounds from a shotgun blast fired by Atwood.

The girl said the man who escaped after Atwood had stopped the car had told her, "I won't be taken alive." He was believed armed and considered dangerous.

Sgt. Clarence Taylor, head of the Crawfordsville police detective division, said charges were being prepared in Indiana against Stevens and would be forwarded to Utah. Stevens was jailed in nearby Price.

The girl told Passic that the two men drove continuously Christmas Day and the day after, stopping only to steal gas or trade for it. The sheriff said the girl told him she was abducted when two men asked her for a ride to California.

Passic said Atwood chased the car after a Wellington service station attendant became suspicious when two men tried to trade a radio for gas.

As he approached the car, Atwood said the driver tried to run him down. He fired his shotgun, striking Stevens in the hand and scratching his face. The other man escaped on foot, Atwood said.

The girl was found on the rear floorboard of the car.

The girl was taken to the home of a policeman in Price where she was reported "doing fine and getting a good sleep after her first meal since noon Sunday."

Council Completes Action On Gift For More Parking

Council approved legislation Tuesday night officially accepting the gift of a piece of business property from Mr. and Mrs. W. Leland Thompson of Park Blvd. for use in enlarging a metered parking lot on W. 6th St., opposite City Hall.

The gift covers two adjoining lots which are the sites of three business places — the Nationwide Insurance agency, the Michels Barbershop and the Weston Meat Market. There are smaller structures in the rear of part of the property.

In accepting the gifts, the city agreed to Thompson's stipulation that it will take steps to raze the building by the end of June. He also stipulated that the tenants will be given three months' free rent.

THE GIFT will make it possible for the city to establish one large parking lot, as the Thompson property abuts directly to the east of the present auto site. The present lot has a capacity of only about a dozen cars, as it accommodates only a single rank in angle parked spots.

The so-called Michels property, the lots run from W. 6th St. to Rural Ln. Several years ago, the city investigated the possibility of purchasing the property to enlarge its parking lot, but decided against the move for lack of funds.

The orddinance accepting the tract includes a formal expression of Council's thanks to the Thompsons. A copy of the legislation was ordered sent to the donors.

About two years ago, Thompson donated E. 3rd St. property to the city for use in expanding the Ceramic Lot on E. 4th St.

The legislation was approved, 7-0. Councilmen Floyd Murray and Robert W. Sample added their thanks to the Thompsons in addition to the expression of appreciation in the ordinance.

"This is a wonderful gift to the city," Murray commented.

IN OTHER business, Council approved a motion asking City Engineer George S. Bloomgren to prepare an alternate plan for a sanitary sewer to serve the new high school and elementary school on Maine Blvd.

The sewer will follow a path through the Beechwood area to East End, rather than traversing Maine Blvd. and then hooking onto existing lines at Ambrose Ave. and Bradshaw Aye.

The original plan called to hook the Maine Blvd. line into sewers on Ambrose Ave. and Bradshaw Ave., but Council raised the question of overloading the old lines. After a conference with the Board of Public Utilities, which administers the sewer system. Council decided on the alternate path through Beechwood to East End.

Chester Council Airs Fund Needs

A proposal to drop the driver license fee program and substitute a city income tax instead was turned down Tuesday night during a meeting of Chester Council, the legislators pointing out such a tax is not legal under West Virginia law.

Councilman Robert Kincaid proposed the change, saying the city is in need of more money and the license fee doesn't provide it.

Kincaid called the license fee a sore spot with many residents and added they might look more kindly on an income tax program.

He declared at least 50 per cent of the residents work out of town and many pay a city income tax in Midland, where a majority are employed at Crucible Steel.

—:—

CITY CLERK Donald Hood pointed out, however, the city can't adopt an income tax program since "the legislature won't allow it." Hood noted there are no cities in West Virginia with such a tax and explained it is the reason so many communities in the state have the driver license program. Hood said few other states have the driver licenses plan, since most have the power to impose other forms of taxes.

Kincaid then suggested the city might raise the driver license fee to $5 a year in order to produce additional funds. But the proposal gained no support from other members.

Council carried on a lengthy discussion concerning the advisability of leaving traffic lights running in sequence all night or turning them on the blinker phase to guide the small amount of late night traffic which passes through the municipality.

Kincaid was the advocate of the blinker policy, saying he again is receiving complaints that tractor - trailer rigs are shifting gears at many points, since the lights presently are running in sequence, and causing a disturbance to residents who live along Carolina Ave. Kincaid said the small amount of traffic does not warrant using the lights early in the morning and in fact hinders traffic which must stop at the light and wait while there is no traffic approaching in the opposite direction.

HE POINTED out it is not good economics to burn 12 light bulbs in each traffic light unit all night when only four are needed for the blinker operation.

But other members and Police Chief Audley Campbell told Kincaid they want no part of the blinkers since the setup plays havoc with the units' mechanisms during the cold weather.

Councilman Charles Kology pointed out when the blinkers were used until a few weeks ago when Council reversed its decision many bulbs had to be replaced each morning when the lights were switched back to their sequential operation.

He said the heat striking the bulbs after they have grown extremely cold during the night causes them to shatter and pointed out one morning five bulbs had to be replaced in the unit at 5th St. and Carolina Ave. Kology remarked since Council decided during its last meeting to allow the lights to continue through the night bulb replacement has dropped to virtually nothing. Previously the bulbs were being replaced almost daily.

CAMPBELL said the units, which are very old and costly to keep repaired, presently are working well, but declared the mechanisms are damaged when they do not run constantly. He said he favors the blinkers when the weather is warm.

But Kincaid remained adamant, saying he is opposed to having the lights operate all night. "Every other little town does it," he noted, asking they be placed on the blinker phase.

"I just wanted to make Chester like the rest of the world," Kincaid said, "and not have it behind the eight ball."

Hood said the city must pay two men to work on the traffic lights when they become inoperable, but Kincaid interjected the city must pay them regardless.

Kincaid also told Council it should begin laying back some funds to replace the traffic lights when they finally become too costly to operate.

Council will investigate the possibility of changing shifts of policemen to provide protection throughout the night. Noting the recent increase in burglaries, the members agreed a man should be working throughout the night.

Patrolman Robert Wilson told Council that when he was patrolling one night he "thinks we scared off some hoodlums who would have cleaned out a place."

Mayor Burton Ward notified Council that Russ Davis has resigned his position on the Water and Sewage Board. Upon Ward's recommendation, council appointed Donald Hissam to the post.

The street committee will look into requests for street lights in various parts of the community.

Quartet Breaks Up After Nearly 17 Years As Unit

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The members of the Dave Brubeck Quartet went their own ways today after a brilliant jazz career of more than a decade.

The four performed their music spiced with unorthodox, varied rhythms for what they said would be their last time together Tuesday night in the Pittsburgh Hilton before a crowd of 1,700.

It had been nearly 17 years since Brubeck combined his piano with the alto sax of Paul Desmond in San Francisco. After trying out an assortment of sidemen, the pair settled on drummer Joe Morello and bassist Gene Wright six years later.

In the 11 years the four improvised together with counterpoint over shifting but insistent rhythms, they rose as a quartet and individuals to the top of the nation's jazz polls.

Brubeck said the group's breakup was a unanimous desire to branch into something else and end their vagabond existence.

Brubeck, who was trained as a classical musician and confesses a deep debt to Bach, said he'll turn to composing. His oratorio, "The Light in the Wilderness," is to be performed at the University of North Carolina and in Cincinnati during the next two months.

we care

A&P

Every year, we make the same resolutions!

Because every year, no matter how well we did the year before, our objectives are essentially the same.

To make A&P a friendly courteous store for you.

To be fair and honest in our pricing and labeling.

To sell only quality products we can fully guarantee.

To do everything possible to bring you the most good food for the least amount of money.

To prove we care about you.

We think we did pretty well in '67.
We'll be trying even harder in '68.

Here's a prediction:
When '68 comes to a close, we still won't be satisfied and we'll try harder in '69 and '79 and '89 and 1999.
We don't think we can ever be good enough for you.

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Tiltonsville's Bill Mazeroski has been the Pirates' second-baseman since 1956, and he is sometimes taken for granted.

But a look at the 1967 National League statistics shows that Mazeroski set four major league records this past year, more than any other national leaguer. Two of the records were already held by Maz, and thus were merely extended. They were most years leading the league in double plays as a second baseman, 8, and most consecutive years leading the league in double plays as a second baseman, also 8. The new records were most years leading the league in assists as a second baseman, 8, and most games played in a year at second base, 163.

Roberto Clemente set a record for most years leading the league in assists as an outfielder, 5, and the Pirates as a team established a new major league high by going to bat 5,724 times in a season.

DONN CLENDENON tied a major-league record by leading the league in double plays as a first baseman for four years. Elroy Face extended four national league records by upping his games to 759, his relief appearances to 732, his games finished to 514 and wins in relief to 90. Maury Wills tied a national league recored by leading the league in singles for the fourth year.

A few other odd marks found their way into the record book in 1967. There were 93 extra-inning games in the National League for a new high. Doug Clemens of the Phillies got three consecutive pinch-hit doubles. Orlando Cepeda and Ron Fairly both played in more than 150 games, but neither hit a triple. Gerry Buchek played a double-header at second base for the Mets but had no putouts and only one assist. Three Atlanta pinch-hitters struck out in the eighth inning on June 18. Adolfo Phillips drew 29 intentional walks. Clay Dalrymple, who hit .172 on the season, walked six times in a doubleheader July 4. Jim LeFebvre made three errors at third base in an inning April 25. Steve Carlton fanned 16 batters but lost Sept. 20. Dave Giusti made three wild pitches in an inning Sept. 2. The Phillies made only one assist on May 18. And the Giants used 25 players in a game on Sept.15.

DAVE RICKETTS, former Duquesne basketball star, handled 121 chances without a flaw as a catcher for the St. Louis Cardinals this year. The Cards also had the top fielding catcher among the regulars, Tim McCarver.

Former Pirate manager Bobby Bragan, who lives in Ft. Worth, expressed interest in managing if the majors placed a club there. "When they fire me, I'd only have a 15-minute drive home" he quipped.

Jose Pagan continues to lead the Puerto Rican league with a .385 mark and Vic Davalillo is second in the Venezuelan loop hitting .377. Luis Tiant, also in Venezuela, has lowered his ERA to 0.94 but his won-lost mark is 3-3.

LSU Fullback Ed Ray Suspended From Team

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — With the Sugar Bowl just five days off, Louisiana State's football team today found itself minus No. 1 fullback Eddie Ray, the Southeastern Conference's top punter.

Coach Charlie McClendon quickly shifted personnel around to fill the gap while Wyoming Coach Lloyd Eaton, whose unbeaten and untied Cowboys battle LSU in the 34th Sugar Bowl Classic here New Year's Day, told sports writers:

"I know Eddie Ray's loss is a great blow to LSU, but they've got such tremendous depth and so many fine backs that I don't know if it will really make a big difference."

McClendon informed his squad Tuesday that Ray, a 6-foot-2, 220-pound soph from Vicksburg, Miss., had been suspended from school.

"This is a terrific setback both to Eddie and to our football team," said McClendon. "However, I want it understood that I defend the action that Eddie took that brought about his suspension. There will be many, many mothers and fathers proud of his action."

The suspension was ordered by the University Disciplinary Committee, which never discloses its reasons.

"I know Wyoming's jumping up and down for joy to know that that big bull's not going to be there," McClendon said in a telephone interview from the Baton Rouge campus.

McClendon declined to discuss the suspension, but it was learned that the action came as a result of Ray voluntarily confessing a classroom mistake.

McKay Compares Indiana To UCLA Grid Team

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Coach John McKay of the Southern California Trojans says Indiana's football forces are "more like UCLA than any other team we've played."

The Trojans and the Hoosiers of the Big Ten battle in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day and the comparison with UCLA brings to mind that USC beat the Bruins by only a single point, 21-20, to win the right to represent the Pacific-8.

"Defensively they're not too big but quick and they don't allow big gains," McKay told the Southern California Football Writers on Tuesday. He added that offensively the personnel in the Indiana backfield also resembles that of the Uclans.

All America linebacker Adrian Young and defensive end Tim Rossovich were quick to agree with their coach.

Young said quarterbacks Harry Gonso, the Indiana sophomore, and UCLA's Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban were both scramblers who "keep you on your toes."

A poll of those attending the session showed 67 favoring USC and 31 for Indiana with two predicting a tie. Those voting for the Trojans predicted a 15-point spread on the average while those for Indiana averaged only a four-point difference.

Coach John Pont of Indiana was asked about the tendencies of his club to gamble during the games and replied:

"I think we are disciplined on both offense and defense but our style seems to be a willingness to take chances with the football at any time."

Soph Gets 40, Columbia Tops WVU

NEW YORK (AP) — Columbia's Dave Newmark, caught between the flu bug and a collapsing zone defense, felt a little less than seven feet tall.

But supersoph Jim McMillian and the other young Lions were in orbit after their impressive debut in the Holiday Festival basketball tournament.

Newmark and McMillian each will have to be sky-high, however, when Columbia tries to bring down towering Westley Unseld and the resurgent Louisville Cardinals in the semifinals of the 16th annual Madison Square Garden classic.

West Virginia's zone limited flu-plagued Newmark to one rebound and two baskets Tuesday night, but McMillian popped in 40 points as the Lions ousted the Mountaineers 98-71 in a first-round game.

Unseld, Louisville's 6-8 All-American, then grabbed 20 rebounds, scored 21 points and teamed with hot shooting Butch Beard and Marv Selvy to lead the Cardinals past LaSalle 97-71.

Columbia and Louisville clash in Thursday night's semifinal doubleheader, which also pits St. John's, N.Y., against 10th-ranked Boston College in a rematch of their earlier meeting—won by the Johnnies 91-90 in overtime.

Boston College ripped Penn State 87-58 and St. John's topped Syracuse 60-55 in a Tuesday afternoon twin bill.

Boston College's Terry Driscoll reeled off 10 of his 19 points early in the second half as the Eagles pulled away from cold-handed Penn State. Jack Kvnacz and Driscoll each scored six points in a 14-2 burst that opened the Eagles 38-27 halftime lead to a commanding 52-29 bulge.

Rudy Bogad, St. John's 6-8 pivotman, broke loose for eight key points in a second-half rally that carried the Redmen to their seventh victory in eight starts. Sophomore Joe DePre topped the winners with 13 points. Bogad had 12, and Mike Rowland and Richie Jackson 10 apiece.

The Quaker City Classic and the Rainbow Classic begin tonight at Philadelphia and Honolulu. The first round pairings at Philadelphia are Penn-Wisconsin, Temple-Providence, Arizona-St. Francis, Pa., and Villanova-Duquesne. Ohio State plays Marquette and Northwestern meets Hawaii in the Rainbow openers. No. 2 ranked Houston, the pretourney favorite, takes on Bradley Thursday night.

Bing Hits 1,000 Mark; Warriors Surprise Celts

By The Associated Press

Dave Bing is over the 1,000-point plateau and the San Francisco Warriors are over the hump in the National Basketball Association.

Bing, Detroit's sensational sophomore, became the first NBA player to pass the 1,000-point mark this season when he poured in 39 and led the Pistons to a 127-110 victory over St. Louis Tuesday night.

The Warriors, meanwhile, ended a four-year losing streak to Boston, beating the Celtics 117-104. It was San Francisco's first victory after 13 straight losses stretching back to January 29, 1964, at Boston.

In other NBA action Tuesday night, Seattle withstood a fourth quarter New York rally and shaded the Knicks 137-135. Los Angeles, playing with Jerry West and Elgin Baylor, topped Chicago 104-101, and Philadelphia dropped Cincinnati 126-121.

Bing, the NBA's leading scorer, also had nine assists as the Pistons pulled away to a 28-point lead in the first half against the Hawks. Bill Bridges led St. Louis with 37 points.

The Pistons, running third in the Eastern Division after finishing last in the Western Division last season, attracted 10,804—their largest home crowd in four years.

Jeff Mullins and Rudy LaRusso hit a flurry of nine field goals that erased a four-point Boston lead and lifted San Francisco in front of the Celtics to stay in the third period.

Mullins hit five baskets and LaRusso four, all from long range, as the Warriors jumped into a 78-71 lead and ended a seven-game Boston winning streak. Mullins finished with 32 points and LaRusso had 27.

Walt Hazzard dropped in six free throws in the final seconds preserving Seattle's victory over New York. The Knicks tied an NBA record by scoring 53 points in the fourth quarter, almost erasing a 23-point SuperSonic lead in the final 10 minutes.

But Hazzard, who had 37 points and 17 assists, kept New York at bay with his flawless foul shooting in the last minute.

The Lakers had to play without Baylor, who had the flu, and West, out with a back injury, but got 24 points from Archie Clark to take up the scoring slack.

Los Angeles blew an 11-point lead in the fourth period, but baskets by Dennis Hamilton and Gail Goodrich in the final one half minute pulled it out for LA.

Chet Walker scored eight of Philadelphia's last 10 points as the 76ers held off Cincinnati. The victory moved the 76ers one half game ahead of Boston in the Eastern Division although Philadelphia trails the Celtics by eight percentage points.

Tiltonsville's Bill Mazeroski has been the Pirates' second-baseman since 1956, and he is sometimes taken for granted.

But a look at the 1967 National League statistics shows that Mazeroski set four major league records this past year, more than any other national leaguer. Two of the records were already held by Maz, and thus were merely extended. They were most years leading the league in double plays as a second baseman, 8, and most consecutive years leading the league in double plays as a second baseman, also 8. The new records were most years leading the league in assists as a second baseman, 8, and most games played in a year at second base, 163.

Roberto Clemente set a record for most years leading the league in assists as an outfielder, 5, and the Pirates as a team established a new major league high by going to bat 5,724 times in a season.

DONN CLENDENON tied a major-league record by leading the league in double plays as a first baseman for four years. Elroy Face extended four national league records by upping his games to 759, his relief appearances to 732, his games finished to 514 and wins in relief to 90. Maury Wills tied a national league recored by leading the league in singles for the fourth year.

A few other odd marks found their way into the record book in 1967. There were 93 extra-inning games in the National League for a new high. Doug Clemens of the Phillies got three consecutive pinch-hit doubles. Orlando Cepeda and Ron Fairly both played in more than 150 games, but neither hit a triple. Gerry Buchek played a double-header at second base for the Mets but had no putouts and only one assist. Three Atlanta pinch-hitters struck out in the eighth inning on June 18. Adolfo Phillips drew 29 intentional walks. Clay Dalrymple, who hit .172 on the season, walked six times in a doubleheader July 4. Jim LeFebvre made three errors at third base in an inning April 25. Steve Carlton fanned 16 batters but lost Sept. 20. Dave Giusti made three wild pitches in an inning Sept. 2. The Phillies made only one assist on May 18. And the Giants used 25 players in a game on Sept.15.

DAVE RICKETTS, former Duquesne basketball star, handled 121 chances without a flaw as a catcher for the St. Louis Cardinals this year. The Cards also had the top fielding catcher among the regulars, Tim McCarver.

Former Pirate manager Bobby Bragan, who lives in Ft. Worth, expressed interest in managing if the majors placed a club there. "When they fire me, I'd only have a 15-minute drive home" he quipped.

Jose Pagan continues to lead the Puerto Rican league with a .385 mark and Vic Davalillo is second in the Venezuelan loop hitting .377. Luis Tiant, also in Venezuela, has lowered his ERA to 0.94 but his won-lost mark is 3-3.

Bing Hits 1,000 Mark; Warriors Surprise Celts

Dave Bing is over the 1,000-point plateau and the San Francisco Warriors are over the hump in the National Basketball Association.

Bing, Detroit's sensational sophomore, became the first NBA player to pass the 1,000-point mark this season when he poured in 39 and led the Pistons to a 127-110 victory over St. Louis Tuesday night.

The Warriors, meanwhile, ended a four-year losing streak to Boston, beating the Celtics 117-104. It was San Francisco's first victory after 13 straight losses stretching back to January 29, 1964, at Boston.

In other NBA action Tuesday night, Seattle withstood a fourth quarter New York rally and shaded the Knicks 137-135. Los Angeles, playing with Jerry West and Elgin Baylor, topped Chicago 104-101, and Philadelphia dropped Cincinnati 126-121.

Bing, the NBA's leading scorer, also had nine assists as the Pistons pulled away to a 28-point lead in the first half against the Hawks. Bill Bridges led St. Louis with 37 points.

The Pistons, running third in the Eastern Division after finishing last in the Western Division last season, attracted 10,804 —their largest home crowd in four years.

Jeff Mullins and Rudy LaRusso hit a flurry of nine field goals that erased a four-point Boston lead and lifted San Francisco in front of the Celtics to stay in the third period.

Mullins hit five baskets and LaRusso four, all from long range, as the Warriors jumped into a 78-71 lead and ended a seven-game Boston winning streak. Mullins finished with 32 points and LaRusso had 27.

Walt Hazzard dropped in six free throws in the final seconds preserving Seattle's victory over New York. The Knicks tied an NBA record by scoring 53 points in the fourth quarter, almost erasing a 23-point SuperSonic lead in the final 10 minutes.

But Hazzard, who had 37 points and 17 assists, kept New York at bay with his flawless foul shooting in the last minute.

The Lakers had to play without Baylor, who had the flu, and West, out with a back injury, but got 24 points from Archie Clark to take up the scoring slack.

Los Angeles blew an 11-point lead in the fourth period, but baskets by Dennis Hamilton and Gail Goodrich in the final one half minute pulled it out for LA.

Chet Walker scored eight of Philadelphia's last 10 points as the 76ers held off Cincinnati. The victory moved the 76ers one half game ahead of Boston in the Eastern Division although Philadelphia trails the Celtics by eight percentage points.

Landry Sees Running As Key To Dallas Win

DALLAS, Tex.. (AP)— Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys said today the statistics pretty well dictated his plans for the National Football League championship game against Green Bay Sunday.

"My predictions don't always come out right as evidenced by last year's championship game between Dallas and Green Bay," Landry observed. "I said you could expect a tough defensive game. But it turned out to be an offensive game."

"However, I note that Green Bay is toughest against passes in the league (the Packers allowed only 98.4 yards per game in the air). So it seems we must dominate the ground game if we are to win."

He added that "we'll have to control the ball on the ground the way we did against Cleveland (Dallas beat the Browns 52-14 for the Eastern Conference championship) and then pick our spots carefully in throwing the ball."

Quarterback Don Meredith apparently was being quite careful when he tried only 12 passes against Cleveland. But he connected on 10, should have completed another and deliberately threw away the 12th when he saw it might be intercepted.

But he passed for two touchdowns and his passing helped set up two more, plus a field goal. However, great punt returns by Bob Hayes and ball control by running made much of the scoring possible.

The Cowboys took Christmas Day off and returned to practice Tuesday.

Landry said nothing new was being tried and would not be.

The Cowboys fly to Appleton, Wis., Friday afternoon and move into Green Bay Saturday.

Stallings Wants Win Over Old Coach Bryant

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Coach Gene Stallings doesn't know it yet but there's a difference of opinion between him and his Texas A&M football team.

Stallings has said that his biggest victory was over Texas last Thanksgiving Day when he broke the stranglehold the Longhorns had held over A&M for 10 years.

The Aggies won 10-7 to bring Texas A&M the Southwest Conference championship and host spot in the Cotton Bowl.

But the Aggie players say Stallings' biggest victory would be beating his old coach, Paul Bryant.

Bryant coached at Texas A&M when Stallings played on the last A&M team to beat Texas—until last Thanksgiving Day. Stallings also was an assistant to Bryant at Alabama until he came to Texas A&M three years ago.

Now Bryant is sending his Alabama Crimson Tide against Stallings' Aggies in the Cotton Bowl next Monday.

And the Aggie players, believing it would be the greatest victory Stallings ever registered in his comparatively short coaching career—beating a man with the fabulous record of Bryant—are dedicating the Cotton Bowl game to him.

Only one former Bryant player ever beat the old master—Paul Dietzel, when he had a national champion at Louisiana State.

The Aggies arrived Tuesday to begin practice for the Cotton Bowl, with 53 players showing up, all coming from their homes where they had spent the Christmas holidays.

It was noted that the Aggies started out behind—Alabama, which arrived a day earlier, has 61 players.

Oilers Depend On Offense Vs. Raiders

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston Oiler Coach Wally Lemm, readying his men for Sunday's American Football League championship game with Oakland, says a Houston victory would be strictly a matter of Oiler offense.

It was George Blanda, the Oiler quarterback released by Houston last spring, who made the difference for Oakland the last time the teams met, booting four field goals for a 19-7 Raider win.

"Blanda's kicking ability does make Oakland tougher to defense," Lemm said before Tuesday's practice. "But the thing we have to do is put more points on the scoreboard."

Lemm went on, "Oakland is a team you have to keep on its side of the 50 yard line. A lot will depend on how well we can control the ball, the way we controlled it in the first half of our game here."

In that game, Houston held the ball 41 plays to Oakland's 31 in the first half and the Oilers went to the dresing rooms with a 7-0 lead on Pete Beathard's 28-yard pass to Hoyle Granger.

In the second half the Raiders controlled the ball 52 plays to Houston's 25, 28 to five in the third quarter.

Lamonica, Blanda Lead AFL Stats

NEW YORK (AP) — Two retreads who helped Oakland win its first American Football League Western Division title this season, led statistical races as well.

Figures released by the AFL today showed veteran place kicker George Blanda winning the scoring crown with 116 points and quarterback Daryle Lamonica finishing first among the league's passers.

Blanda, cast off by Houston before the season, hooked on with the Raiders and kicked 20 of 30 field goal attempts and 56 of 57 conversion attempts, finishing eight points ahead of Kansas City's kicking specialist Jan Stenerud.

Lamonica, who was a benchwarmer for four years at Buffalo before being traded to Oakland, hurled 30 touchdown passes and completed 220 of 425 passes for 3,228 yards.

Boston's Jim Nance won his second straight rushing title, gaining 1,216 yards and New York's George Sauer led the league's pass catchers with 75 receptions.

Oakland 10-Point Favorite

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—The Oakland Raiders have been established as early 10-point favorites by the betting fraternity in their American Football League title clash with the Houston Oilers Sunday at Oakland Coliseum.

Although fans are looking ahead to a Super Bowl clash with the winners of next Sunday's National Football League title game, the Raiders are concentrating on the sellout fray with the Oilers.

Oakland, going after its first title, had a 13-1 season. It beat Houston 19-7 three weeks ago in their only encounter this season. That was with George Blanda's four field goals, after each side scored only one touchdown.

Blanda, by the way, finished the season winning the AFL scoring crown with 116 points. He kicked 20 field goals and made 56 points after touchdown. Raider quarterback Daryle Lamonica was first among the passers, hitting 30 touchdown throws and completing 220 of 425 air attempts for 3,228 yards.

As the Raiders returned to practice Tuesday, a question mark loomed in punt returner Rodger Bird, the league's record holder for runback yardage and punt returns. The former Kentucky All-American twisted a knee while catching a punt catch in the game with Buffalo last Sunday.

NHL Scoring Lead Grabbed By Mikita

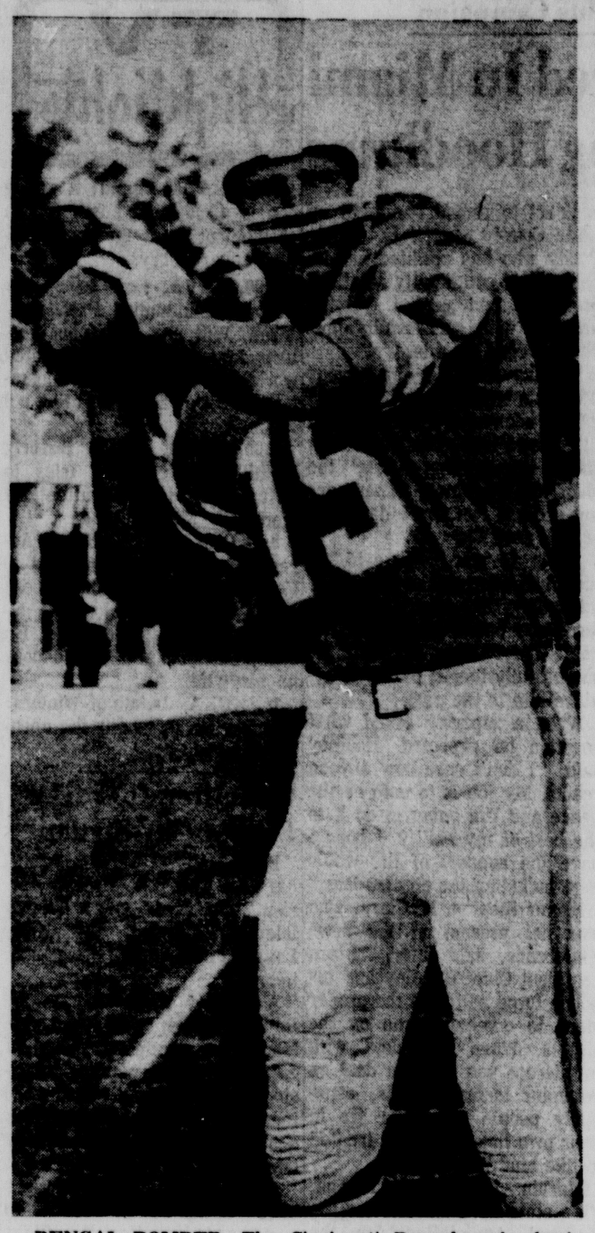
NEW YORK (AP) — Stan Mikita, Chicago's gritty, little center has rallied after a slow start to take over the National Hockey League's individual scoring lead. He captured the title three times in the past four seasons.

Mikita, who scored only 111 points in his first 19 games, has totaled 30 points on 12 goals and 18 assists in his last 15 games.

The latest statistics through Monday night's games showed the Black Hawks' star with 41 points. Teammate Bobby Hull is second with 40 points followed by two Boston players, Johnny Bucyk and Fred Stanfield, with 37 points apiece.

Bernie Parent and Doug Favell of the Philadelphia Flyers have the best combined goaltending average, 2.10. Don Awrey of Boston continues to lead in penalty minutes with 91.

Mikita took the scoring title in 1964, 1965 and 1967. Hull won it in 1966.



BENGAL BOMBER. The Cincinnati Bengals, who begin AFL play next season, yesterday acquired Miami Dolphin quarterback John Stofa in exchange for two high draft picks. Stofa, injured early in the season this year, lost his job to rookie Bob Greise. (UPI Telephoto)

New Orleans Buccaneers Dominating ABA Play

By The Associated Press

The American Basketball Association has started doing things double, but the New Orleans Buccaneers still have lost less than half as many games as half of the other teams in the league.

The Bucs were part of the ABA's first regular season doubleheader Tuesday night and trampled the Anaheim Amigos 120-93 for their 25th victory against nine defeats.

New Jersey, Kentucky, Oakland, Houston and Anaheim have lost more than twice as many times.

New Jersey's latest loss came in the second game of that doubleheader in Indianapolis, a 117-107 defeat by Indiana.

In the only other ABA game Denver stopped Oakland 102-95.

Doug Moe, the league's fifth highest scorer, led the Bucs with 26 points while Larry Brown contributed 13 points and six assists. The victory also increased New Orlean's Western division lead to eight games over Dallas.

Another Brown, Roger, sparked Indiana with 25 points, and Jerry Harkness added 21 before the crowd of 5,999.

The Pacers led by only 59-53 at halftime but raced to a 109-90 bulge halfway through the fourth quarter behind Brown, Harkness and Bob Netolicky.

Byron Beck helped power Denver past Oakland, grabbing 15 rebounds in the second half during which the Rockets came from behind. Oakland led at the half 56-48. Larry Jones led Denver with 24 points while LaVerne Tart, the league's top scorer, poured in 29 for the Oaks.

Leroy Keyes Big 10 Loop Grid MVP

CHICAGO (AP)—All-America Leroy Keyes of Purdue has been chosen the Big Ten's most valuable football player for the 1967 season with sophomore quarterback Harry Gonso of Indiana a close second.

Keyes wil receive the Sliver Football awarded annually since 1924 by The Chicago Tribune.

The junior halfback-flanker from Newport News, Va., was selected, from among each Big Ten school's most valuable candidate, by conference coaches, 10 veteran officials, Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reed, sports editor George Strickler of the Tribune and Roy Damer, Tribune writer.

In addition to Keyes and Gonso, others in the running were end John Wright, Illinois, tackle Tom Domres, Wisconsin; linebacker Dirk Worden, Ohio State; halfback Tom Sakal, Minnesota; guard Bruce Gunstra, Northwestern; halfback Ron Johnson, Michigan and halfback Silas McKinnie, Iowa.

Packers OK Physically For Dallas

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers should be in good shape physically when they meet the Dallas Cowboys in the National Football League championship game here Sunday, Coach Vince Lombardi says.

Three Packers received minor injuries last Saturday when Green Bay beat the Los Angeles Rams 28-7 for the Western Conference title.

Quarterback Bart Starr hurt his hip but was able to stay in the game. Defensive back Bob Jeter suffered a bruised knee, and center Ken Bowman was badly shaken up on a play.

"But they're all okay now," Lombardi said Tuesday after his players worked out in zero weather at snow-covered Green Bay.

The Packers are practicing at Lambeau Field, where Sunday's game will be played. The turf is kept at a 50-degree temperature and is prevented from freezing by a system of electric cables under the ground.

Salem Nipped By Columbus Walnut Ridge

Salem lost a frantic 50-49 decision to Columbus Walnut Ridge at Salem last night.

With 50 seconds to go George Spack scored to put the Quakers up 49-48, but Marc Tremor hit a short shot with 12 seconds to go to give Columbus the lead. Dana Barnes had a one-plus-one foul situation with eight seconds left but failed to convert, and a long shot by Spack as the buzzer sounded hit the rim and bounced away.

Scott Cody had 12 to lead John Cabas' team, now 3-4, while Bill Burgett was high for the visitors with 18. Walnut Ridge is now 4-2.

Maris Has Tic In Face

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Roger Maris says he'll have to wait and see if the ailment affecting the right side of his face will clear up, but the St. Louis Cardinals are confident Maris will be well by spring training.

The Cardinals said they had no plans to have Maris come to St. Louis for an examination of the Bell's palsy which has affected vision in Maris' right eye. Maris said Tuesday that he has been suffering from the disorder for some time.

He said the ailment prevents him from blinking his eye and has caused some pain. He said he has developed a film over the eye.

Cardinal team physician Dr. I. C. Middleman said Bell's palsy is "something that can clear up in four to six weeks. It's almost 100 per cent curable."

The 33-year-old right fielder had informed the Cardinals some time ago that he would undergo surgery for removal of polyps from his throat, a spokesman said.

Maris scoffed at reports he had lost almost all sight in the eye. He said he was taking medication for the nervous disorder.

Australia Clinches Davis Cup

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Australia still reigns supreme in world amateur tennis.

The Aussies retained the Davis Cup today when John Newcombe and Tony Roche defeated Manual Santana and Manuel Oranges 6-4, 6-4, 6-4 in a doubles match, giving them a 3-0 lead over Spain in the Challenge Round and making Thursday's two singles matches meaningless.

Newcombe beat Orantes and Roy Emerson defeated Santana in opening singles matches Tuesday.

Spanish Captain Jaime Bartroli said his team lost a bit because Luis Arilla was unable to play.

Arilla, who usually teams with Santana, was forced to withdraw from the doubles because of a strained thigh. He was replaced by the 18-year-old Orantes.

Only once did the Spaniards get near to breaking their opponents' service as a crowd of 4,200, 300 below capacity, watched Roche and Newcombe clinch the Cup for Australia for the 11th time in the last 13 years and for the 24th time since the competition began.

WVU Coach Harrick In Helms Hall

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP) — Former West Virginia University baseball coach Steve Harrick was named to the Helms Athletic Foundation hall of fame Tuesday.

The honor is reserved for outstanding college baseball coaches.

Harrick retired last year after 20 years as WVU baseball coach. During his tenure, WVU baseball teams won 334 games, lost 160 and tied one.

Harrick's teams won the Southern Conference title eight times.

A native of Fordham, Pa., Harrick coached at Point Pleasant, W. Va. high school and West Virginia Tech before moving to WVU.

Marshall Considering Perry Moss

CHARLESTON (AP) — Marshall University athletic director Eddie Barrett has declined to say whether Perry Moss, coach of the Orlando Panthers of the Continental Football League last season, will be offered the head coaching job at Marshall.

The Charleston Gazette reported today that Moss will be offered the position and added that Jim (Shorty) Moss, who played end with the Charleston Rockets of the CFL, will be offered a job as assistant coach.

The position reopened last week when Purdue assistant coach George (Burnie) Miller refused to sign a written contract with Marshall in spite of a spoken agreement that he would accept the job.

Penn State Moves Into Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Penn State's football team, eager to avenge a defeat in its last Gator Bowl appearance five years ago, moves into Jacksonville today for final tuneups before meeting Florida State Saturday afternoon.

FSU will complete practically all its preparations at home in Tallahassee before coming to Jacksonville Thursday. The Seminoles hope to repeat their initial Gator Bowl experience of 1964 with victory.

Coach Joe Paterno of Penn State was an assistant coach in 1962 when Florida upset the Nittany Lions 17-7.

Penn State has seven straight victories, an impressive 8-2 record and the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East.

Landry Sees Running As Key To Dallas Win

DALLAS, Tex.. (AP)— Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys said today the statistics pretty well dictated his plans for the National Football League championship game against Green Bay Sunday.

"My predictions don't always come out right as evidenced by last year's championship game between Dallas and Green Bay," Landry observed. "I said you could expect a tough defensive game. But it turned out to be an offensive game."

"However, I note that Green Bay is toughest against passes in the league (the Packers allowed only 98.4 yards per game in the air). So it seems we must dominate the ground game if we are to win."

He added that "we'll have to control the ball on the ground the way we did against Cleveland (Dallas beat the Browns 52-14 for the Eastern Conference championship) and then pick our spots carefully in throwing the ball."

Quarterback Don Meredith apparently was being quite careful when he tried only 12 passes against Cleveland. But he connected on 10, should have completed another and deliberately threw away the 12th when he saw it might be intercepted.

But he passed for two touchdowns and his passing helped set up two more, plus a field goal. However, great punt returns by Bob Hayes and ball control by running made much of the scoring possible.

The Cowboys took Christmas Day off and returned to practice Tuesday.

Landry said nothing new was being tried and would not be.

The Cowboys fly to Appleton, Wis., Friday afternoon and move into Green Bay Saturday.

Stallings Wants Win Over Old Coach Bryant

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Coach Gene Stallings doesn't know it yet but there's a difference of opinion between him and his Texas A&M football team.

Stallings has said that his biggest victory was over Texas last Thanksgiving Day when he broke the stranglehold the Longhorns had held over A&M for 10 years.

The Aggies won 10-7 to bring Texas A&M the Southwest Conference championship and host spot in the Cotton Bowl.

But the Aggie players say Stallings' biggest victory would be beating his old coach, Paul Bryant.

Bryant coached at Texas A&M when Stallings played on the last A&M team to beat Texas—until last Thanksgiving Day. Stallings also was an assistant to Bryant at Alabama until he came to Texas A&M three years ago.

Now Bryant is sending his Alabama Crimson Tide against Stallings' Aggies in the Cotton Bowl next Monday.

And the Aggie players, believing it would be the greatest victory Stallings ever registered in his comparatively short coaching career—beating a man with the fabulous record of Bryant—are dedicating the Cotton Bowl game to him.

Only one former Bryant player ever beat the old master—Paul Dietzel, when he had a national champion at Louisiana State.

The Aggies arrived Tuesday to begin practice for the Cotton Bowl, with 53 players showing up, all coming from their homes where they had spent the Christmas holidays.

It was noted that the Aggies started out behind—Alabama, which arrived a day earlier, has 61 players.

Oilers Depend On Offense Vs. Raiders

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston Oiler Coach Wally Lemm, readying his men for Sunday's American Football League championship game with Oakland, says a Houston victory would be strictly a matter of Oiler offense.

It was George Blanda, the Oiler quarterback released by Houston last spring, who made the difference for Oakland the last time the teams met, booting four field goals for a 19-7 Raider win.

"Blanda's kicking ability does make Oakland tougher to defense," Lemm said before Tuesday's practice. "But the thing we have to do is put more points on the scoreboard."

Lemm went on, "Oakland is a team you have to keep on its side of the 50 yard line. A lot will depend on how well we can control the ball, the way we controlled it in the first half of our game here."

In that game, Houston held the ball 41 plays to Oakland's 31 in the first half and the Oilers went to the dresing rooms with a 7-0 lead on Pete Beathard's 28-yard pass to Hoyle Granger.

In the second half the Raiders controlled the ball 52 plays to Houston's 25, 28 to five in the third quarter.

Lamonica, Blanda Lead AFL Stats

NEW YORK (AP) — Two retreads who helped Oakland win its first American Football League Western Division title this season, led statistical races as well.

Figures released by the AFL today showed veteran place kicker George Blanda winning the scoring crown with 116 points and quarterback Daryle Lamonica finishing first among the league's passers.

Blanda, cast off by Houston before the season, hooked on with the Raiders and kicked 20 of 30 field goal attempts and 56 of 57 conversion attempts, finishing eight points ahead of Kansas City's kicking specialist Jan Stenerud.

Lamonica, who was a benchwarmer for four years at Buffalo before being traded to Oakland, hurled 30 touchdown passes and completed 220 of 425 passes for 3,228 yards.

Boston's Jim Nance won his second straight rushing title, gaining 1,216 yards and New York's George Sauer led the league's pass catchers with 75 receptions.

Oakland 10-Point Favorite

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—The Oakland Raiders have been established as early 10-point favorites by the betting fraternity in their American Football League title clash with the Houston Oilers Sunday at Oakland Coliseum.

Although fans are looking ahead to a Super Bowl clash with the winners of next Sunday's National Football League title game, the Raiders are concentrating on the sellout fray with the Oilers.

Oakland, going after its first title, had a 13-1 season. It beat Houston 19-7 three weeks ago in their only encounter this season. That was with George Blanda's four field goals, after each side scored only one touchdown.

Blanda, by the way, finished the season winning the AFL scoring crown with 116 points. He kicked 20 field goals and made 56 points after touchdown. Raider quarterback Daryle Lamonica was first among the passers, hitting 30 touchdown throws and completing 220 of 425 air attempts for 3,228 yards.

As the Raiders returned to practice Tuesday, a question mark loomed in punt returner Rodger Bird, the league's record holder for runback yardage and punt returns. The former Kentucky All-American twisted a knee while catching a punt catch in the game with Buffalo last Sunday.

NHL Scoring Lead Grabbed By Mikita

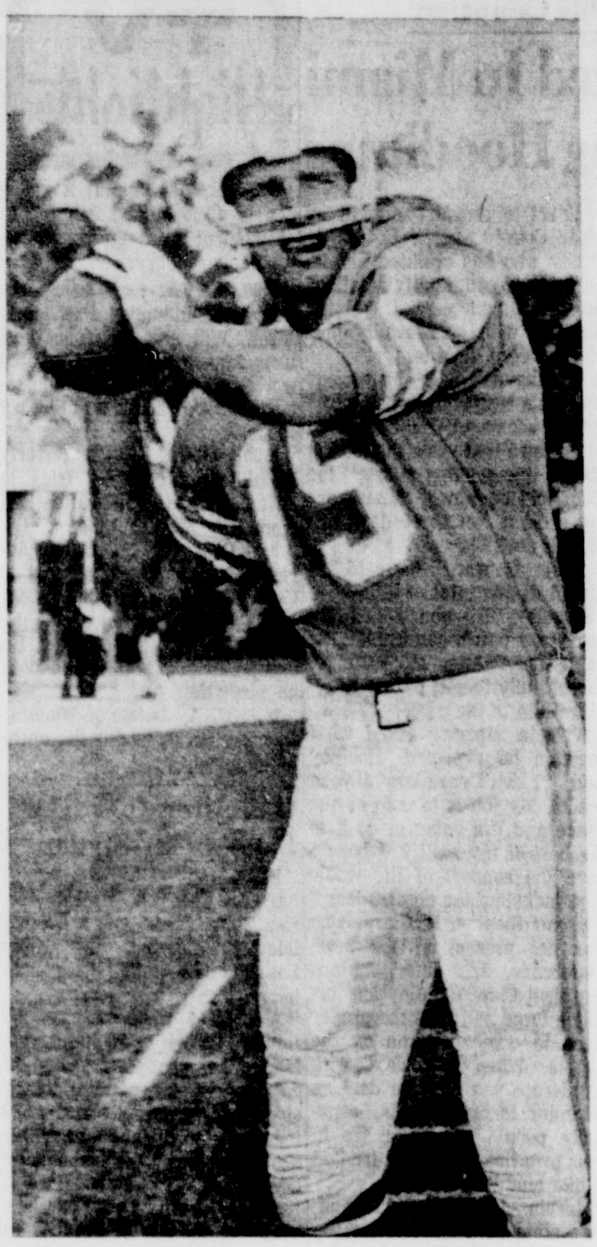
NEW YORK (AP) — Stan Mikita, Chicago's gritty, little center has rallied after a slow start to take over the National Hockey League's individual scoring lead. He captured the title three times in the past four seasons.

Mikita, who scored only 111 points in his first 19 games, has totaled 30 points on 12 goals and 18 assists in his last 15 games.

The latest statistics through Monday night's games showed the Black Hawks' star with 41 points. Teammate Bobby Hull is second with 40 points followed by two Boston players, Johnny Bucyk and Fred Stanfield, with 37 points apiece.

Bernie Parent and Doug Favell of the Philadelphia Flyers have the best combined goaltending average, 2.10. Don Awrey of Boston continues to lead in penalty minutes with 91.

Mikita took the scoring title in 1964, 1965 and 1967. Hull won it in 1966.



BENGAL BOMBER. The Cincinnati Bengals, who begin AFL play next season, yesterday acquired Miami Dolphin quarterback John Stofa in exchange for two high draft picks. Stofa, injured early in the season this year, lost his job to rookie Bob Greise. (UPI Telephoto)

New Orleans Buccaneers Dominating ABA Play

By The Associated Press

The American Basketball Association has started doing things double, but the New Orleans Buccaneers still have lost less than half as many games as half of the other teams in the league.

The Bucs were part of the ABA's first regular season doubleheader Tuesday night and trampled the Anaheim Amigos 120-93 for their 25th victory against nine defeats.

New Jersey, Kentucky, Oakland, Houston and Anaheim have lost more than twice as many times.

New Jersey's latest loss came in the second game of that doubleheader in Indianapolis, a 117-107 defeat by Indiana.

In the only other ABA game Denver stopped Oakland 102-95.

Doug Moe, the league's fifth highest scorer, led the Bucs with 26 points while Larry Brown contributed 13 points and six assists. The victory also increased New Orlean's Western division lead to eight games over Dallas.

Another Brown, Roger, sparked Indiana with 25 points, and Jerry Harkness added 21 before the crowd of 5,999.

The Pacers led by only 59-53 at halftime but raced to a 109-90 bulge halfway through the fourth quarter behind Brown, Harkness and Bob Netolicky.

Byron Beck helped power Denver past Oakland, grabbing 15 rebounds in the second half during which the Rockets came from behind. Oakland led at the half 56-48. Larry Jones led Denver with 24 points while LaVerne Tart, the league's top scorer, poured in 29 for the Oaks.

Leroy Keyes Big 10 Loop Grid MVP

CHICAGO (AP)—All-America Leroy Keyes of Purdue has been chosen the Big Ten's most valuable football player for the 1967 season with sophomore quarterback Harry Gonso of Indiana a close second.

Keyes wil receive the Sliver Football awarded annually since 1924 by The Chicago Tribune.

The junior halfback-flanker from Newport News, Va., was selected, from among each Big Ten school's most valuable candidate, by conference coaches, 10 veteran officials, Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reed, sports editor George Strickler of the Tribune and Roy Damer, Tribune writer.

In addition to Keyes and Gonso, others in the running were end John Wright, Illinois, tackle Tom Domres, Wisconsin; linebacker Dirk Worden, Ohio State; halfback Tom Sakal, Minnesota; guard Bruce Gunstra, Northwestern; halfback Ron Johnson, Michigan and halfback Silas McKinnie, Iowa.

Packers OK Physically For Dallas

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers should be in good shape physically when they meet the Dallas Cowboys in the National Football League championship game here Sunday, Coach Vince Lombardi says.

Three Packers received minor injuries last Saturday when Green Bay beat the Los Angeles Rams 28-7 for the Western Conference title.

Quarterback Bart Starr hurt his hip but was able to stay in the game. Defensive back Bob Jeter suffered a bruised knee, and center Ken Bowman was badly shaken up on a play.

"But they're all okay now," Lombardi said Tuesday after his players worked out in zero weather at snow-covered Green Bay.

The Packers are practicing at Lambeau Field, where Sunday's game will be played. The turf is kept at a 50-degree temperature and is prevented from freezing by a system of electric cables under the ground.

Salem Nipped By Columbus Walnut Ridge

Salem lost a frantic 50-49 decision to Columbus Walnut Ridge at Salem last night.

With 50 seconds to go George Spack scored to put the Quakers up 49-48, but Marc Tremor hit a short shot with 12 seconds to go to give Columbus the lead. Dana Barnes had a one-plus-one foul situation with eight seconds left but failed to convert, and a long shot by Spack as the buzzer sounded hit the rim and bounced away.

Scott Cody had 12 to lead John Cabas' team, now 3-4, while Bill Burgett was high for the visitors with 18. Walnut Ridge is now 4-2.

Maris Has Tic In Face

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Roger Maris says he'll have to wait and see if the ailment affecting the right side of his face will clear up, but the St. Louis Cardinals are confident Maris will be well by spring training.

The Cardinals said they had no plans to have Maris come to St. Louis for an examination of the Bell's palsy which has affected vision in Maris' right eye. Maris said Tuesday that he has been suffering from the disorder for some time.

He said the ailment prevents him from blinking his eye and has caused some pain. He said he has developed a film over the eye.

Cardinal team physician Dr. I. C. Middleman said Bell's palsy is "something that can clear up in four to six weeks. It's almost 100 per cent curable."

The 33-year-old right fielder had informed the Cardinals some time ago that he would undergo surgery for removal of polyps from his throat, a spokesman said.

Maris scoffed at reports he had lost almost all sight in the eye. He said he was taking medication for the nervous disorder.

Australia Clinches Davis Cup

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Australia still reigns supreme in world amateur tennis.

The Aussies retained the Davis Cup today when John Newcombe and Tony Roche defeated Manual Santana and Manuel Oranges 6-4, 6-4, 6-4 in a doubles match, giving them a 3-0 lead over Spain in the Challenge Round and making Thursday's two singles matches meaningless.

Newcombe beat Orantes and Roy Emerson defeated Santana in opening singles matches Tuesday.

Spanish Captain Jaime Bartroli said his team lost a bit because Luis Arilla was unable to play.

Arilla, who usually teams with Santana, was forced to withdraw from the doubles because of a strained thigh. He was replaced by the 18-year-old Orantes.

Only once did the Spaniards get near to breaking their opponents' service as a crowd of 4,200, 300 below capacity, watched Roche and Newcombe clinch the Cup for Australia for the 11th time in the last 13 years and for the 24th time since the competition began.

WVU Coach Harrick In Helms Hall

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP) — Former West Virginia University baseball coach Steve Harrick was named to the Helms Athletic Foundation hall of fame Tuesday.

The honor is reserved for outstanding college baseball coaches.

Harrick retired last year after 20 years as WVU baseball coach. During his tenure, WVU baseball teams won 334 games, lost 160 and tied one.

Harrick's teams won the Southern Conference title eight times.

A native of Fordham, Pa., Harrick coached at Point Pleasant, W. Va. high school and West Virginia Tech before moving to WVU.

Marshall Considering Perry Moss

CHARLESTON (AP) — Marshall University athletic director Eddie Barrett has declined to say whether Perry Moss, coach of the Orlando Panthers of the Continental Football League last season, will be offered the head coaching job at Marshall.

The Charleston Gazette reported today that Moss will be offered the position and added that Jim (Shorty) Moss, who played end with the Charleston Rockets of the CFL, will be offered a job as assistant coach.

The position reopened last week when Purdue assistant coach George (Burnie) Miller refused to sign a written contract with Marshall in spite of a spoken agreement that he would accept the job.

Penn State Moves Into Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Penn State's football team, eager to avenge a defeat in its last Gator Bowl appearance five years ago, moves into Jacksonville today for final tuneups before meeting Florida State Saturday afternoon.

FSU will complete practically all its preparations at home in Tallahassee before coming to Jacksonville Thursday. The Seminoles hope to repeat their initial Gator Bowl experience of 1964 with victory.

Coach Joe Paterno of Penn State was an assistant coach in 1962 when Florida upset the Nittany Lions 17-7.

Penn State has seven straight victories, an impressive 8-2 record and the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East.

The Return Of Johnnie Ray

Hal Humphrey

Most of the current generation of teen-agers never heard of Johnnie Ray, yet he is credited with being one of the originators of today's rock 'n' roll style. Johnnie will be appearing on ABC's "Hollywood Palace" next Tuesday where he sings two of the songs which catapulted him to fame 15 years ago — "Cry" and "Little White Cloud That Cried."

When Johnnie started out the music he sang was called "Rhythm and blues" instead of rock 'n' roll, but there isn't much difference.

AND, IF YOU ever saw Johnnie perform, it isn't likely you'd ever forget it. He stomped, tore at his clothes and literally cried when he sang "Cry."

This "Hollywood Palace" show Tuesday is the first TV Johnnie has done in eight or nine years, and he hopes it will start him off on TV again.

Where has he been all that time? It's a long story, he says, filled with mistakes like misplaced loyalties and bad judgment.

Johnnie's agents, in those days when he was hot, got greedy and kept sending their sensational singer of songs on world tours. Johnnie made some of the longest show business hops ever recorded.

-:-

"I REMEMBER going from South Africa to Buffalo once, and from Cincinnati to Australia," he says. "It's a dubious honor, but I've played the London Palladium more times than any other American."

During the past 10 years Johnnie has made 13 European tours, 10 to Australia, two to the Orient, one to South Africa and several to Latin America.

He got so fed up with all this traveling that three years ago he fired his agents and went to Spain for a "short vacation" which lasted almost a year.

While Johnnie was out touring the world, and very successfully, another singer named Elvis Presley came along to grab the kids.

"MY PHONE might have been ringing here, but I'd be in Brazil trying to learn eight words of 'Thanks' to say to my audience there," says Johnnie, looking back. "By the way, I can say 'Thanks for coming' in eight different languages."

Meanwhile, Presley's shrewd manager kept his boy on home ground cutting records, signing movie contracts, and so on. Johnnie Ray, who'd had more than a dozen hit records (five gold ones for selling more than a million copies), soon was forgotten.

The past two years Johnnie has been back in Hollywood (he lives in Malibu), "trying to crack this town for TV, pictures and records." He's about to sign a new recording contract and recently made a movie at Paramount called "Rogue's Gallery" with Edgar Bergen and Roger Smith.

JOHNNIE still wears a hearing aid, but it's now in his right ear, since he's gone completely deaf in the left one. He's had two ear operations. In 1952 he established the Johnnie Ray Foundation for the Deaf which has aided many afflicted children and granted scholarships for teachers' training.

Of the current pop music inundating us today, Johnnie says much of it is trash, but there's a lot that's good. He has great admiration for the talented young groups playing this music.

Among his favorite singers today, Johnnie lists Andy Williams at the top.

"I still like Sinatra for his electricity, but he hasn't the voice of Williams or a Tony Bennett. Perry Como I like, too, because he's the nicest to hear," says Johnnie.

-:-

HE ONCE SAID of his own voice that it was "too piercing," and that he was not a Ray fan. Johnnie's style of singing hasn't changed, he reports, but he's just kept it up to date. He believes there's much too much mechanical stuff used today by the recording studios.

"Most of the singers recording today can't duplicate their singing out of the studio. That's why they have to lip-sync to their recordings when they go on TV. I'm a work horse. I won't take those short cuts," he says.

LANDER, Wyo. (AP) — Paul Petzoldt, 59, of this community, will lead the third consecutive midwinter assault on the 13,766-foot Grand Teton Peak in Northern Wyoming.

Petzoldt said Tuesday so many persons expressed interest in the climb that three six-member teams will be formed. He said that Mrs. Martha Hellyer, 21, the only woman member, would accompany her husband's group.

Petzoldt said the party would leave Lander Thursday, check through the Moose ranger station and then begin the ascent. He said the group hoped to reach the timberline by Friday, and that it would take four days —with favorable weather—to reach the peak's summit.

Parties in the past two winters were forced back by blizzards. Last year winds of more than 100 miles per hour buffeted the climbers.

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — After 159 years, a lost portrait of Thomas Jefferson will become known to millions via its reproduction on a one-cent postage stamp starting Jan. 12.

The 19-by-23-inch portrait done by Rembrandt Peale of Baltimore in 1800, was thought to be the best likeness of Jefferson. It was painted the year he became president at age 57.

However, art historians lost track of it until it turned up in 1959 in the Peale Museum, insured for $2,500.

When researchers learned what it was, the painting was reinsured for $200,000. Shortly afterwards it was sold to the Mellon family, who presented it to the White House in 1962.

NEW YORK (AP) — Italian actor Maurizio Arena flew in Tuesday in romantic pursuit of Princess Maria Beatrice, whose father, former King Umberto, has forbidden them to marry.

The bearded Arena, 34, learned at Kennedy airport that the princess meanwhile had taken off for Mexico. "I will telephone her," he said.

Arena said he last talked to the princess in Rome two weeks ago when "she wanted some time to think about things." He said the two then agreed to postpone their wedding for a month.

The couple has been thwarted in attempts to marry both in England and Spain.

Radio Patrol Group Discusses Program

Maj. C. W. Hendershot of the ASIP Highway Radio Patrol, Gregg May and Brad Rogers of Akron were guest speakers when the Highway Radio Patrol met Friday in the Ohio Valley Gas Co. office on W. 6th St.

A discussion was held about changing the name of the organization to the National Radio Patrol, to be incorporated throughout Ohio as a nonprofit organization. The group's objective is to offer assistance to state and local law enforcement agencies, when needed, through citizen band radio.

Uniforms, patches and equipment also were discussed.

Capt. James Manypenny of the area patrol said the next meeting will be announced.

Take Advantage Of Rights Campaign

Action Ordered In Miami Against Young Hoodlums

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Police Chief Walter Headley says that community relations programs in the city's Negro district have failed so his officers are under orders to combat with shotguns and dogs "young hoodlums who have taken advantage of the civil rights campaign."

"Felons will learn that they can't be bonded out from the morgue," Headley told reporters at a news conference.

Criticism from civil rights leaders was swift even as beefed-up patrols in the Central Negro District began enforcing the city's "stop and frisk" law —searching persons on the street without arrest or warrant. A lieutenant said six 3-man task force cars and five K9 cars were in the district in addition to regular patrols Tuesday night.

"We don't mind being accused of police brutality," Headley said. "They haven't seen anything yet."

"Ninety per cent of our Negro population is law abiding and wants to eliminate our crime problem," Headley said. "But 10 per cent are young hoodlums who have taken advantage of the civil rights campaign."

Headley, chief of the department for 19 years, said he took his action after the Christmas holiday weekend in which there were 58 violent crimes in the area, including three murders.

"In only three, write criminals were involved; the rest were Negro men," Headley said.

"Community relations and all that sort of thing has failed," Headley said. "We have done everything we could, sending speakers out and meeting with Negro leaders. But it has amounted to nothing."

Headley's statement was in contrast to recent comment by Dade County Sheriff E. Wilson Purdy who has credited his department's community relations programs and special training projects with successfully preventing civil disorders.

"We haven't had any serious problems with civil uprising and looting because I've let the word filter down that when the looting starts, the shooting starts," the chief told newsmen. "These are my orders: Not three days after, but now."

"This is war," he said. "I meant it, every bit of it."

Headley, 62, who joined the force as a patrolman in 1937, became chief Aug. 11, 1948. He successfully fought moves to replace him in the past.

When a reporter asked what reaction he expected, Headley said: "I don't care how anyone reacts. My job is to enforce the peace and I'm going to do it to the best of my ability. I hope I have the support of the whole city, including the city leaders."

Mayor Stephen P. Clark, who was not present at the news conference, said later, "I am confident Chief Headley and his police force will take the proper steps to combat crime on the streets. When you deal with murderers you have to deal on common terms. Felons, especially people who take life in their own hands, will be treated in like kind."

Marvin Davies of Tampa, Fla., state field director for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said, "We will do all we can to get him (Headley) to resign. If necessary, we will get a lawsuit to keep him from enforcing this type of arbitrary action. I'll be before the City Council trying to get him suspended until his attitude changes."

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The present 82-month period of steady economic expansion will continue in 1968, say two private economists, but they also see increased inflation and unemployment ahead.

Price increases of 3.5 per cent —this year they averaged 3 per cent — were predicted Tuesday by Dr. Carl H. Madden, chief economist for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. Gerhard Colm, chief economist for the National Planning Association.

Colm said unemployment should creep upward slightly from this year's average of 3.9 per cent but made no firm prediction. Madden forecast an average of 4.2 per cent.

Colm said the gnoss national product, approximately $785 billion this year, will probably spurt to $844.5 billion in 1968. Madden's estimate was $800 billion.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressman who hires legal help to wage a court battle when his seat is threatened by redistricting can't deduct the expenses when figuring his income tax, the Internal Revenue Service says.

Without naming any names, the IRS disclosed Tuesday that it had been asked by a congressman about the chances of putting such legal fees down as business expenses. He had hired legal experts to prepare briefs for the courts in his state, which is in the throes of reshaping congressional districts.

These costs don't meet the test of being directly connected with the "trade or business of being a United States congressman," the IRS said.

The Department of Agriculture is moving immediately to hire 75 more inspectors to assist in meeting the department's meat inspection responsibilities —greatly broadened by the recently passed Wholesome Meat Act. Some 500 wil be hired by mid-1968.

Mangement fees paid the group of universities that operate the government - owned Kitt Peak National Observatory at Tucson, Ariz., may be overly generous, the General Accounting Office says. GAO is recommending a review.

U.S. Aircraft Carrier Floating TV Station

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — The U.S. aircraft carrier Yorktown is now a floating television station, the Navy League of the United States said today.

A project sponsored by the Beverly Hills council of the league has equipped the giant carrier to relay popular televisions programs to some 4,500 men throughout the ship and on destroyers in her antisubmarine task force.

Although all U.S. carriers have closed-circuit television systems to monitor the flight deck, the Yorktown is the first Navy ship to broadcast television news and entertainment while at sea, the league said.

Several hundred thousand dollars of equipment the council purchased or borrowed includes cameras, transmitter, videotape system, 150 receivers and numerous program tapes.

Devine, Wylie To Submit Own Districting Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Franklin County's two U.S. representatives say they plan to submit a redistricting plan of their own.

Reps. Samuel L. Devine and Chalmers Wylie, both Republicans, disclosed Tuesday they plan to request that Gov. Rhodes modify the state administration's proposal--at least the portion which would affect Franklin County.

Devine's district, the 12th, now is made up of roughly the east half of the county. The administration - proposed plan would give him the south half of the county plus Madison and Pickaway counties.

Wylie's district, the 15th, now comprises roughly the west half of Franklin County. Under the administration plan, he would run in a district made up of the north half of the county, all of Delaware and Morrow counties and six Marion County townships.

Under the Devine-Wylie plan, Delaware and Morrow counties would be added to Devine's current district, and the 15th district would pick up Madison and Pickaway counties.

Both congressmen plan to run for re-election next year.

LANDER, Wyo. (AP) — Paul Petzoldt, 59, of this community, will lead the third consecutive midwinter assault on the 13,766-foot Grand Teton Peak in Northern Wyoming.

Petzoldt said Tuesday so many persons expressed interest in the climb that three six-member teams will be formed. He said that Mrs. Martha Hellyer, 21, the only woman member, would accompany her husband's group.

Petzoldt said the party would leave Lander Thursday, check through the Moose ranger station and then begin the ascent. He said the group hoped to reach the timberline by Friday, and that it would take four days —with favorable weather—to reach the peak's summit.

Parties in the past two winters were forced back by blizzards. Last year winds of more than 100 miles per hour buffeted the climbers.

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — After 159 years, a lost portrait of Thomas Jefferson will become known to millions via its reproduction on a one-cent postage stamp starting Jan. 12.

The 19-by-23-inch portrait done by Rembrandt Peale of Baltimore in 1800, was thought to be the best likeness of Jefferson. It was painted the year he became president at age 57.

However, art historians lost track of it until it turned up in 1959 in the Peale Museum, insured for $2,500.

When researchers learned what it was, the painting was reinsured for $200,000. Shortly afterwards it was sold to the Mellon family, who presented it to the White House in 1962.

NEW YORK (AP) — Italian actor Maurizio Arena flew in Tuesday in romantic pursuit of Princess Maria Beatrice, whose father, former King Umberto, has forbidden them to marry.

The bearded Arena, 34, learned at Kennedy airport that the princess meanwhile had taken off for Mexico. "I will telephone her," he said.

Arena said he last talked to the princess in Rome two weeks ago when "she wanted some time to think about things." He said the two then agreed to postpone their wedding for a month.

The couple has been thwarted in attempts to marry both in England and Spain.

Radio Patrol Group Discusses Program

Maj. C. W. Hendershot of the ASIP Highway Radio Patrol, Gregg May and Brad Rogers of Akron were guest speakers when the Highway Radio Patrol met Friday in the Ohio Valley Gas Co. office on W. 6th St.

A discussion was held about changing the name of the organization to the National Radio Patrol, to be incorporated throughout Ohio as a nonprofit organization. The group's objective is to offer assistance to state and local law enforcement agencies, when needed, through citizen band radio.

Uniforms, patches and equipment also were discussed.

Capt. James Manypenny of the area patrol said the next meeting will be announced.

Take Advantage Of Rights Campaign

Action Ordered In Miami Against Young Hoodlums

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Police Chief Walter Headley says that community relations programs in the city's Negro district have failed so his officers are under orders to combat with shotguns and dogs "young hoodlums who have taken advantage of the civil rights campaign."

"Felons will learn that they can't be bonded out from the morgue," Headley told reporters at a news conference.

Criticism from civil rights leaders was swift even as beefed-up patrols in the Central Negro District began enforcing the city's "stop and frisk" law —searching persons on the street without arrest or warrant. A lieutenant said six 3-man task force cars and five K9 cars were in the district in addition to regular patrols Tuesday night.

"We don't mind being accused of police brutality," Headley said. "They haven't seen anything yet."

"Ninety per cent of our Negro population is law abiding and wants to eliminate our crime problem," Headley said. "But 10 per cent are young hoodlums who have taken advantage of the civil rights campaign."

Headley, chief of the department for 19 years, said he took his action after the Christmas holiday weekend in which there were 58 violent crimes in the area, including three murders.

"In only three, write criminals were involved; the rest were Negro men," Headley said.

"Community relations and all that sort of thing has failed," Headley said. "We have done everything we could, sending speakers out and meeting with Negro leaders. But it has amounted to nothing."

Headley's statement was in contrast to recent comment by Dade County Sheriff E. Wilson Purdy who has credited his department's community relations programs and special training projects with successfully preventing civil disorders.

"We haven't had any serious problems with civil uprising and looting because I've let the word filter down that when the looting starts, the shooting starts," the chief told newsmen. "These are my orders: Not three days after, but now."

"This is war," he said. "I meant it, every bit of it."

Headley, 62, who joined the force as a patrolman in 1937, became chief Aug. 11, 1948. He successfully fought moves to replace him in the past.

When a reporter asked what reaction he expected, Headley said: "I don't care how anyone reacts. My job is to enforce the peace and I'm going to do it to the best of my ability. I hope I have the support of the whole city, including the city leaders."

Mayor Stephen P. Clark, who was not present at the news conference, said later, "I am confident Chief Headley and his police force will take the proper steps to combat crime on the streets. When you deal with murderers you have to deal on common terms. Felons, especially people who take life in their own hands, will be treated in like kind."

Marvin Davies of Tampa, Fla., state field director for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said, "We will do all we can to get him (Headley) to resign. If necessary, we will get a lawsuit to keep him from enforcing this type of arbitrary action. I'll be before the City Council trying to get him suspended until his attitude changes."

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The present 82-month period of steady economic expansion will continue in 1968, say two private economists, but they also see increased inflation and unemployment ahead.

Price increases of 3.5 per cent —this year they averaged 3 per cent — were predicted Tuesday by Dr. Carl H. Madden, chief economist for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. Gerhard Colm, chief economist for the National Planning Association.

Colm said unemployment should creep upward slightly from this year's average of 3.9 per cent but made no firm prediction. Madden forecast an average of 4.2 per cent.

Colm said the gnoss national product, approximately $785 billion this year, will probably spurt to $844.5 billion in 1968. Madden's estimate was $800 billion.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressman who hires legal help to wage a court battle when his seat is threatened by redistricting can't deduct the expenses when figuring his income tax, the Internal Revenue Service says.

Without naming any names, the IRS disclosed Tuesday that it had been asked by a congressman about the chances of putting such legal fees down as business expenses. He had hired legal experts to prepare briefs for the courts in his state, which is in the throes of reshaping congressional districts.

These costs don't meet the test of being directly connected with the "trade or business of being a United States congressman," the IRS said.

Capital Footnotes

The Department of Agriculture is moving immediately to hire 75 more inspectors to assist in meeting the department's meat inspection responsibilities —greatly broadened by the recently passed Wholesome Meat Act. Some 500 wil be hired by mid-1968.

Mangement fees paid the group of universities that operate the government - owned Kitt Peak National Observatory at Tucson, Ariz., may be overly generous, the General Accounting Office says. GAO is recommending a review.

Capital Quote

"I leave here with a basic grasp of the situation."—Gov. George Romney of Michigan upon his departure from South Vietnam.

Tax Guide Available For County Farmers

LISBON — The 1968 edition of the "Farmers Tax Guide" is available free at the Columbiana County extension office, 113 S. Market St., Lisbon, according to Paul H. Gipp, county extension agent for agriculture.

The booklet is published as an aid to farmers in preparing and filing their 1967 income tax return. It explains in everyday language the provisions of the tax law as it applies to farmers.

Gipp said farmers who need additional information on non-farm items — not covered in the bulletin — should contact the Internal Revenue Service for help.

U.S. Aircraft Carrier Floating TV Station

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — The U.S. aircraft carrier Yorktown is now a floating television station, the Navy League of the United States said today.

A project sponsored by the Beverly Hills council of the league has equipped the giant carrier to relay popular televisions programs to some 4,500 men throughout the ship and on destroyers in her antisubmarine task force.

Although all U.S. carriers have closed-circuit television systems to monitor the flight deck, the Yorktown is the first Navy ship to broadcast television news and entertainment while at sea, the league said.

Several hundred thousand dollars of equipment the council purchased or borrowed includes cameras, transmitter, videotape system, 150 receivers and numerous program tapes.

Devine, Wylie To Submit Own Districting Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Franklin County's two U.S. representatives say they plan to submit a redistricting plan of their own.

Reps. Samuel L. Devine and Chalmers Wylie, both Republicans, disclosed Tuesday they plan to request that Gov. Rhodes modify the state administration's proposal--at least the portion which would affect Franklin County.

Devine's district, the 12th, now is made up of roughly the east half of the county. The administration - proposed plan would give him the south half of the county plus Madison and Pickaway counties.

Wylie's district, the 15th, now comprises roughly the west half of Franklin County. Under the administration plan, he would run in a district made up of the north half of the county, all of Delaware and Morrow counties and six Marion County townships.

Under the Devine-Wylie plan, Delaware and Morrow counties would be added to Devine's current district, and the 15th district would pick up Madison and Pickaway counties.

Both congressmen plan to run for re-election next year.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of THOMAS P. SMITH, who passed away December 26, 1959.
He was a wonderful father.
He played life's battle square.
No matter when we needed him
We always found him there.
So on this day our hearts go out
To the dearest and best of fathers
Who never had time to think of himself
But always thought of others.
Sadly missed by Wife, Children, and Grandchildren.

IN memory of Vernon Hoal, who passed away 10 years ago, Dec. 27th.
Nothing but memories as we journey on, Longing for a smile from a loved one gone; None knows the depths of our deep regret.
But we remember when others forget.
Sadly missed by wife, children and grandchildren.

3 CARD OF THANKS

ERNEST PENNY wishes to thank all his friends and neighbors for all their sympathy and help during his recent bereavement of his wife, Martha.

Junior Editors Quiz on ALFRED NOBEL

QUESTION: Who was Alfred Nobel?

ANSWER: Alfred Bernhard Nobel, whose portrait appears on the medal, was a Swedish chemist born in 1833. He had an ambition to make the dangerous substance nitroglycerine safe to handle. He accomplished this by combining nitroglycerine with an inert earth, and he called the combination dynamite. By manufacturing dynamite, Nobel became one of the richest men in the world. But as time went on, he saw the devastation that explosives were causing in modern wars and decided to use his fortune to encourage peace and useful achievement. Nobel set up a fund for this purpose, with prizes to be awarded each year. The first prize was given in 1901. There are five Nobel prizes, for important achievement in physics, chemistry, medicine, literature, and towards international peace. Some well-known winners have been Marie Curie, Rudyard Kipling, Albert Einstein, Sinclair Lewis and Albert Schweitzer. In 1965, UNICEF, the United Nations International Children's emergency Fund, was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.
